(b) Employment. —

(1) No employer may discharge, threaten, refuse to hire or otherwise discriminate or retaliate against an employee regarding an employee's compensation, terms, conditions, location or privileges solely on the basis of such employee's status as an individual who is certified to use medical cannabis.

(2) Nothing in this act shall require an employer to make any accommodation of the use of medical cannabis on the property or premises of any place of employment. This act shall in no way limit an employer's ability to discipline an employee for being under the influence of medical cannabis in the workplace or for working while under the influence of medical cannabis when the employee's conduct falls below the standard of care normally accepted for that position.

(3) Nothing in this act shall require an employer to commit any act that would put the employer or any person acting on its behalf in violation of federal law relating to marijuana use, whether for medical use or not.

(1) Nothing in this chapter requires an employer to commit any act that would put the employer or any person acting on the employer's behalf in violation of federal law relating to marijuana use, whether for medical use or not.

(2) Nothing in this chapter limits the ability of an employer to establish, continue, or enforce a drug-free workplace program or policy.

(3) Nothing in this chapter requires an employer to accommodate the medical use of marijuana.

(4) Nothing in this chapter requires an employer to allow an employee to work under the influence of medical marijuana.

(5) Nothing in this chapter creates a cause of action against an employer for wrongful discharge or discrimination due to the employees use of medical marijuana.

(6) Nothing in this chapter impairs the ability of any owner, tenant, or the agent of such owner or tenant to restrict or prohibit the use of medical marijuana on his or her private property.
NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to clarify provisions relating to medical marijuana as applied to employers in this state and to clarify federal requirements of certain employers to permit employees to work while using medical marijuana when the employee would otherwise be denied employment for marijuana use.
