87 5-13a of this code.

88 (D) If the number of candidates for an office exceeds the space available on a column or 89 ballot page and requires that candidates for a single office be separated, to the extent possible, 90 the number of candidates for the office on separate columns or pages are to be nearly equal and

97 be made directly on the ballot, a blank line shall be placed in any vacant position in the office of 114 (8) Ballots are to contain perforated tabs at the top of the ballots and are to be printed with 115 unique sequential numbers from one to the highest number representing the total number of 116 ballots printed. On paper ballots, the ballot is to be bordered by a solid line at least one sixteenth

7 has been designated the administrator, the Insurance Commissioner. In claims in which the 8 employer had coverage on the date of the injury or last exposure, the employer's carrier has sole

10 to any issue which is ready for a decision, the Insurance Commissioner, private carrier, or self-11 insured employer, whichever is applicable, shall promptly send the decision to all parties, 12 including the basis of its decision. As soon as practicable after receipt of any occupational

15 whichever is applicable, shall send the claimant a brochure approved by the Insurance
16 Commissioner setting forth the claims process.

23 applicable, is final unless the decision is protested within 60 days after the receipt of such decision 24 unless a protest is filed within the 60-day period, the finding or action is final. This time limitation

25 is a condition of the right to litigate the finding or action and hence jurisdictional. Any protest shall 26 be filed with the Office of Judges with a copy served upon the parties to the claim, and other 27 parties in accordance with the procedures set forth in §23-8-1 et seq. and §23-9-1 et seq. of this 28 code. An employer may protest decisions incorporating findings made by the Occupational 35 denied the application shall begin to make conditional payment of benefits and must promptly 36 give notice to the Office of Judges that another identifiable person may be liable. The Office of 37 Judges shall promptly order the appropriate persons be joined as parties to the proceeding: 38 Provided, That at any time during a proceeding in which conditional payments are being made in 39 accordance with the provisions of this subsection, the Office of Judges may, pending final 40 determination of the person properly liable for payment of the claim, order that such conditional 41 payments of benefits be paid by another party.

42 (B) Any conditional payment made pursuant to paragraph (A) of this subdivision shall not 43 be deemed an admission or conclusive finding of liability of the person making such payments.
44 When the administrative law judge has made a determination as to the party properly liable for 45 payment of the claim, he or she shall direct any monetary adjustment or reimbursement between 46 or among the Insurance Commissioner, private carriers, and self-insured employers as is 47 necessary.

48 (c) The Office of Judges may direct that:

49 (1) An application for benefits be designated as a petition to reopen, effective as of the 54 private carrier, or self-insured employer be designated as an application or petition to reopen filed 55 with another private carrier, self-insured employer, or Insurance Commissioner, effective as of the 56 original date of filing.

57 (d) Where an employer protests a written decision entered pursuant to a finding of the 58 Occupational Pneumoconiosis Board, a decision on a claim made by the Insurance 59 Commissioner acting as the administrator of a fund created in §23-2C-1 et seq. of this code, or 60 decisions entered pursuant to §23-4-7A(c)(1) of this code, and the employer does not prevail in 61 its protest, and in the event the claimant is required to attend a hearing by subpoena or agreement 62 of counsel, or at the express direction of the Office of Judges, then the claimant, in addition to 63 reasonable traveling and other expenses, shall be reimbursed for loss of wages incurred by the 64 claimant in attending the hearing.

65 (e) The Insurance Commissioner, private carrier, or self-insured employer, whichever is 66 applicable, may amend, correct, or set aside any order or decision on any issue entered by it, 67 which, at the time of issuance or any time after that, is discovered to be defective or clearly 68 erroneous or the result of mistake, clerical error, or fraud, or with respect to any order or decision 69 denying benefits, otherwise not supported by the evidence, but any protest filed prior to entry of 70 the amended decision is a protest from the amended decision unless and until the administrative 71 law judge before whom the matter is pending enters an order dismissing the protest as moot in 72 light of the amendment. Jurisdiction to issue an amended decision pursuant to this subsection 73 continues until the expiration of two years from the date of a decision to which the amendment is 74 made unless the decision is sooner affected by an action of an administrative law judge or other 75 judicial officer or body: Provided, That corrective actions in the case of fraud may be taken at any 76 time.

77 (f) This section is of no force and effect after June 30, 2022.

8 in which the employer had coverage on the date of the injury or last exposure, the employer's 9 carrier has sole authority to act on the employer's behalf in all aspects related to litigation of the 10 claim. With regard to any issue which is ready for a decision, the Insurance Commissioner, private 11 carrier, or self-insured employer, whichever is applicable, shall promptly send the decision to all 12 parties, including the basis of its decision. As soon as practicable after receipt of any occupational 13 pneumoconiosis or occupational disease claim or any injury claim in which temporary total 14 benefits are being claimed, the Insurance Commissioner, private carrier, or self-insured employer,
15 whichever is applicable, shall send the claimant a brochure approved by the Insurance
16 Commissioner setting forth the claims process.

17 (b) (1) Except with regard to interlocutory matters, upon making any decision, upon making 18 or refusing to make any award, or upon making any modification or change with respect to former 19 findings or orders, as provided by §23-4-16 of this code, the Insurance Commissioner, private 20 carrier, or self-insured employer, whichever is applicable, shall give notice, in writing, to the parties 21 to the claim of its action. The notice shall state the time allowed for filing an objection to the finding.
22 The action of the Insurance Commissioner, private carrier, or self-insured employer, whichever is 23 applicable, is final unless an objection to the decision is properly filed within 60 days after the 24 receipt of such decision. This time limitation is a condition of the right to litigate the finding or 25 action and hence jurisdictional. Any objection shall be filed with the Workers' Compensation Board 26 of Review, as provided in §23-5-8a and §23-5-8b of this code, with a copy served upon the parties 27 to the claim, and other parties in accordance with the procedures set forth in §23-5-8a and

30 acting as administrator of claims involving funds created in §23-2C-1 et seq. of this code, or 31 decisions entered pursuant to §23-4-7a(c)(1) of this code.

32 (2) (A) With respect to every application for benefits in which an objection to a decision to 33 deny benefits is filed and the matter involves an issue as to whether the application was properly 34 filed as a new claim or a reopening of a previous claim, the party that denied the application shall 35 begin to make conditional payment of benefits and must promptly give notice to the Workers' 36 Compensation Board of Review that another identifiable person may be liable. The Workers' 37 Compensation Board of Review shall promptly order the appropriate persons be joined as parties 38 to the proceeding: Provided, That at any time during a proceeding in which conditional payments 39 are being made in accordance with the provisions of this subsection, the Workers' Compensation 40 Board of Review may, pending final determination of the person properly liable for payment of the 41 claim, order that such conditional payments of benefits be paid by another party.

42 (B) Any conditional payment made pursuant to paragraph (A) of this subdivision shall not 43 be deemed an admission or conclusive finding of liability of the person making such payments.
44 When the Workers' Compensation Board of Review has made a determination as to the party 45 properly liable for payment of the claim, the Board of Review shall direct any monetary adjustment 46 or reimbursement between or among the Insurance Commissioner, private carriers, and 47 self-insured employers as is necessary.

48 (c) The member of the Workers' Compensation Board of Review assigned to an objection, 49 as provided in §23-5-9a(b) of this code, may direct that:

72 the Workers' Compensation Board of Review enters an order dismissing the objection as moot in 73 light of the amendment. Jurisdiction to issue an amended decision pursuant to this subsection 74 continues until the expiration of two years from the date of a decision to which the amendment is

19 That any order or decision of the Board of Review must be issued and signed by the member of 20 the Board assigned to the objection, as provided in subsection (e) of this section: Provided further, 21 That a time frame order, continuance order, show cause order, failure to prosecute order, or other 24 requirement that orders be issued and signed by a member of the board.

25 (c) The Workers' Compensation Board of Review shall establish a program for mediation
26 to be conducted in accordance with the requirements of Rule 25 of the West Virginia Trial Court 27 Rules. The parties may agree that the result of the mediation is binding. A case may be referred

44 Compensation Board of Review to whom the objection is assigned, along with the hearing 45 examiner's recommendation of a decision affirming, reversing, or modifying the action that was 46 subject to the objection. Upon consideration of the designated record and, if applicable, the 47 recommendation of the hearing examiner, the member of the Workers' Compensation Board of 48 Review assigned to the objection shall, based on the determination of the facts of the case and 49 applicable law, render a decision affirming, reversing, or modifying the action that was subject to 50 the objection. The decision shall contain findings of fact and conclusions of law, shall be signed 51 by the member of the Workers' Compensation Board of Review rendering the decision, and shall 52 be mailed to all parties.

53 (f) The Workers' Compensation Board of Review may remand a claim to the Insurance 54 Commissioner, private carrier, or self-insured employer, whichever is applicable, for further 55 development of the facts or administrative matters as, in the opinion of the member of the board 56 of review assigned to the objection, may be necessary for a full and complete disposition of the 57 case. The member of the Workers' Compensation Board of Review assigned to the objection shall 58 establish a time within which the Insurance Commissioner, private carrier, or self-insured 59 employer, whichever is applicable, must report back to the board of review.

60 (g) The decision of the Workers' Compensation Board of Review regarding any objections

63 an order staying the payment of benefits is specifically entered by a court with appellate 64 jurisdiction over the decision or by the member of the Office of Judges who granted the benefits.
65 A stay with respect to any medical treatment or rehabilitation authorized by the Workers' 66 Compensation Board of Review may not be granted. If the decision is subsequently appealed and 67 reversed in accordance with the procedures set forth in this article, and any overpayment of 68 benefits occurs as a result of the reversal, the overpayment may be recovered pursuant to the 69 provisions of §23-4-1c(h) or §23-4-1d(d) of this code, as applicable.

70 (h) This section becomes effective on July 1, 2022.

§23-5-12. Appeal to board; procedure; remand and supplemental hearing; effective until June 30, 2022.

1 (a) Any employer, employee, claimant, or dependent who shall feel aggrieved at any final 2 action of the administrative law judge taken after a hearing held in accordance with the provisions 3 of §23-5-9 of this code shall have the right to appeal to the board created in §23-11-1 of this code

7 judge. The aggrieved party shall file a written notice of appeal with the Board of Review, with a 8 copy to the Office of Judges, within 30 days after receipt of notice of the action complained of or, 9 in any event, regardless of notice, within 60 days after the date of the action complained of, and 10 unless the notice of appeal is filed within the time specified, no appeal shall be allowed, the time 11 limitation is a condition of the right to appeal and hence jurisdictional. The board shall notify the 12 other parties immediately upon the filing of a notice of appeal. The notice of appeal shall state the 13 ground for review and whether oral argument is requested. The Office of Judges, after receiving 14 a copy of the notice of appeal, shall forthwith make up a transcript of the proceedings before the 15 Office of Judges and certify and transmit it to the board. The certificate shall incorporate a brief 16 recital of the proceedings in the case and recite each order entered and the date thereof.

17 (b) The board shall set a time and place for the hearing of arguments on each claim and 18 shall notify the interested parties thereof. The review by the board shall be based upon the record 19 submitted to it and such oral argument as may be requested and received. The board may affirm, 20 reverse, modify, or supplement the decision of the administrative law judge and make such 21 disposition of the case as it determines to be appropriate. Briefs may be filed by the interested 22 parties in accordance with the rules of procedure prescribed by the board. The board may affirm 23 the order or decision of the administrative law judge or remand the case for further proceedings.
24 It shall reverse, vacate, or modify the order or decision of the administrative law judge if the 25 substantial rights of the petitioner or petitioners have been prejudiced because the administrative 26 law judge's findings are:

- 27 (1) In violation of statutory provisions; or 28 (2) In excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the administrative law judge; or 29 (3) Made upon unlawful procedures; or

30 (4) Affected by other error of law; or

31 (5) Clearly wrong in view of the reliable, probative, and substantial evidence on the whole 32 record; or

33 (6) Arbitrary or capricious or characterized by abuse of discretion or clearly unwarranted
34 exercise of discretion.

35 (c) After a review of the case, the board shall issue a written decision and send a copy by 36 mail to the parties.

37 (1) All decisions, findings of fact and conclusions of law of the Board of Review shall be in 38 writing and state with specificity the laws and facts relied upon to sustain, reverse, or modify the 39 administrative law judge's decision.

40 (2) Decisions of the Board of Review shall be made by a majority vote of the Board of 41 Review.

42 (3) A decision of the Board of Review is binding upon the executive director and the 43 commission and the successor to the commission, other private insurance carriers, and self-44 insured employers, whichever is applicable, with respect to the parties involved in the particular 45 appeal. The executive director, the successor to the commission, other private insurance carriers, 46 and self-insured employers, whichever is applicable, shall have the right to seek judicial review of 47 a board of review decision irrespective of whether or not he or she appeared or participated in the 48 appeal to the Board of Review.

49 (d) Instead of affirming, reversing, or modifying the decision of the administrative law 50 judge, the board may, upon motion of any party or upon its own motion, for good cause shown, 51 to be set forth in the order of the board, remand the case to the chief administrative law judge for 52 the taking of such new, additional, or further evidence as in the opinion of the board may be 53 necessary for a full and complete development of the facts of the case. In the event the board 54 shall remand the case to the chief administrative law judge for the taking of further evidence, the 55 administrative law judge shall proceed to take new, additional, or further evidence in accordance 56 with any instruction given by the board within 30 days after receipt of the order remanding the 57 case. The chief administrative law judge shall give to the interested parties at least 10 days' written 58 notice of the supplemental hearing, unless the taking of evidence is postponed by agreement of 59 parties, or by the administrative law judge for good cause. After the completion of a supplemental 60 hearing, the administrative law judge shall, within 60 days, render his or her decision affirming, 61 reversing, or modifying the former action of the administrative law judge. The decision shall be 62 appealable to and proceeded with by the Board of Review in the same manner as other appeals.

63 In addition, upon a finding of good cause, the board may remand the case to the Workers'
64 Compensation Commission, the successor to the commission, other private insurance carriers, 65 and self-insured employers, whichever is applicable, for further development. Any decision made 66 by the commission, the successor to the commission, other private insurance carriers, and self-67 insured employers, whichever is applicable, following a remand shall be subject to objection to 68 the Office of Judges and not to the board. The board may remand any case as often as in its 69 opinion is necessary for a full development and just decision of the case.

70 (e) All appeals from the action of the administrative law judge shall be decided by the 71 board at the same session at which they are heard, unless good cause for delay thereof be shown 72 and entered of record.

73 (f) In all proceedings before the board, any party may be represented by counsel.

74 (g) This section is of no force and effect after June 30, 2022.

§23-5-12a. Appeal of board decisions to the Intermediate Court of Appeals; procedure; remand and supplemental hearing; effective July 1, 2022.

1 (a) Any employer, employee, claimant, or dependent who shall feel aggrieved by a 2 decision of the Workers' Compensation Board of Review shall have the right to appeal to the West 3 Virginia Intermediate Court of Appeals, created by §51-11-1 et seq. of this code, for a review of 4 such action. The Insurance Commissioner, other private insurance carriers, and self-insured
5 employers, whichever is applicable, shall likewise have the right to appeal to the Intermediate

6 Court of Appeals any final action taken by the Workers' Compensation Board of Review. The 7 aggrieved party shall file a written notice of appeal with the Intermediate Court of Appeals, with a 8 copy to the Workers' Compensation Board of Review, within 30 days after receipt of notice of the 9 action complained of or, in any event, regardless of notice, within 60 days after the date of the 10 action complained of: Provided, That unless the notice of appeal is filed within the time specified, 11 no appeal shall be allowed: Provided, however, That the time limitation is a condition of the right 12 to appeal and hence jurisdictional. The board shall notify the other parties immediately upon the 13 filing of a notice of appeal. The notice of appeal shall state the grounds for review and whether 14 oral argument is requested. The Workers' Compensation Board of Review, after receiving a copy 15 of the notice of appeal, shall forthwith make up a transcript of any proceedings before the board 16 of review and certify and transmit it to the Intermediate Court of Appeals. The certificate shall 17 incorporate a brief recital of the proceedings in the matter and recite each order entered or 18 decision issued and the date thereof.

19 (b) The Intermediate Court of Appeals shall set a time and place for the hearing of 20 arguments on each claim and shall notify the interested parties thereof. The review by the court 21 shall be based upon the record submitted to it and such oral argument as may be requested and 22 received. The Intermediate Court of Appeals may affirm, reverse, modify, or supplement the 23 decision of the Workers' Compensation Board of Review and make such disposition of the case 24 as it determines to be appropriate. Briefs may be filed by the interested parties in accordance with 25 the rules of procedure prescribed by the court. The Intermediate Court of Appeals may affirm the 26 order or decision of the Workers' Compensation Board of Review or remand the case for further 27 proceedings. It shall reverse, vacate, or modify the order or decision of the Workers' 28 Compensation Board of Review, if the substantial rights of the petitioner or petitioners have been 29 prejudiced because the Board of Review's findings are:

30 (1) In violation of statutory provisions;

31 (2) In excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the Board of Review;

- 32 (3) Made upon unlawful procedures;
- 33 (4) Affected by other error of law;
- 34 (5) Clearly wrong in view of the reliable, probative, and substantial evidence on the whole 35 record; or
- 36 (6) Arbitrary or capricious or characterized by abuse of discretion or clearly unwarranted
37 exercise of discretion.

38 (c) After a review of the case, the Intermediate Court of Appeals shall issue a written 39 decision and send a copy by mail to the parties.

40 (1) All decisions, findings of fact, and conclusions of law of the Intermediate Court of 41 Appeals shall be in writing and state with specificity the laws and facts relied upon to sustain, 42 reverse, or modify the Board of Review's decision.

43 (2) A decision of the Intermediate Court of Appeals is binding upon the Insurance 44 Commissioner, other private insurance carriers, and self-insured employers, whichever is 45 applicable, with respect to the parties involved in the particular appeal. The Insurance 46 Commissioner, other private insurance carriers, and self-insured employers, whichever is 47 applicable, shall have the right to seek judicial review of a final decision of the Intermediate Court 48 of Appeals, pursuant to §51-11-13 of this code, irrespective of whether the party appeared or 49 participated in the appeal to the Intermediate Court of Appeals.

50 (d) Instead of affirming, reversing, or modifying the decision of the Workers' Compensation 51 Board of Review, the Intermediate Court of Appeals may, upon motion of any party or upon its 52 own motion, for good cause shown, to be set forth in the order of the court, remand the case to 53 the Board of Review for the taking of such new, additional, or further evidence as in the opinion 54 of the court considers necessary for a full and complete development of the facts of the case. In 55 the event the Intermediate Court of Appeals shall remand the case to the Board of Review for the 56 taking of further evidence, the Board of Review shall proceed to take new, additional, or further 57 evidence in accordance with any instruction given by the court within 30 days after receipt of the 58 order remanding the case. The Workers' Compensation Board of Review shall give to the 59 interested parties at least 10 days' written notice of the supplemental hearing, unless the taking 60 of evidence is postponed by agreement of parties, or by the Board of Review for good cause.

61 After the completion of a supplemental hearing, the Workers' Compensation Board of Review 62 shall, within 60 days, render its decision affirming, reversing, or modifying the former action of the 63 Workers' Compensation Board of Review. The decision shall be appealable to, and proceeded 64 with, by the Intermediate Court of Appeals in the same manner as other appeals. In addition, upon 65 a finding of good cause, the court may remand the case to the Insurance Commissioner, other 66 private insurance carriers, or self-insured employers, whichever is applicable, for further 67 development. Any decision made by the Insurance Commissioner, other private insurance 68 carriers, or self-insured employers, whichever is applicable, following a remand, shall be subject 69 to objection to the Workers' Compensation Board of Review and not to the Intermediate Court of 70 Appeals. The Intermediate Court of Appeals may remand any case as often as, in its opinion, is 71 necessary for a full development and just decision of the case.

72 (e) In all proceedings before the Intermediate Court of Appeals, any party may be 73 represented by counsel.

74 (f) This section becomes effective on July 1, 2022.

§23-5-13. Continuances and supplemental hearings; claims not to be denied on technicalities; effective until June 30, 2022.

1 (a) It is the policy of this chapter that the rights of claimants for workers' compensation be 2 determined as speedily and expeditiously as possible to the end that those incapacitated by 3 injuries and the dependents of deceased workers may receive benefits as quickly as possible in 4 view of the severe economic hardships which immediately befall the families of injured or 5 deceased workers. Therefore, the criteria for continuances and supplemental hearings "for good 6 cause shown" are to be strictly construed by the chief administrative law judge and his or her 7 authorized representatives to prevent delay when granting or denying continuances and

8 supplemental hearings. It is also the policy of this chapter to prohibit the denial of just claims of 9 injured or deceased workers or their dependents on technicalities.

10 (b) This section is of no force and effect after June 30, 2022.

§23-5-13a. Continuances and supplemental hearings; claims not to be denied on technicalities; effective July 1, 2022.

3 injuries and the dependents of deceased workers may receive benefits as quickly as possible in 4 view of the severe economic hardships which immediately befall the families of injured or 5 deceased workers. Therefore, the criteria for continuances and supplemental hearings "for good

7 authorized representatives to prevent delay when granting or denying continuances and 8 supplemental hearings. It is also the policy of this chapter to prohibit the denial of just claims of 9 injured or deceased workers or their dependents on technicalities.

10 (b) This section becomes effective on July 1, 2022.

§23-5-15. Appeals from final decisions of board to Supreme Court of Appeals prior to July 1, 2022; procedure; costs.

1 (a) As provided in §23-5-8b of this code, the provisions of this section do not apply to any 2 decision issued by the Workers' Compensation Board of Review after June 30, 2022.

3 (b) Review of any final decision of the board, including any order of remand, may be 4 prosecuted by either party or by the Insurance Commissioner, other private insurance carriers, 5 and self-insured employers, whichever is applicable, to the Supreme Court of Appeals within 30 6 days from the date of the final order by filing a petition therefor with the court against the board 7 and the adverse party or parties as respondents. Unless the petition for review is filed within the 8 30-day period, no appeal or review shall be allowed, such time limitation is a condition of the right
9 to such appeal or review and hence jurisdictional. The clerk of the Supreme Court of Appeals

10 shall notify each of the respondents and the Insurance Commissioner, other private insurance 11 carriers, and self-insured employers, whichever is applicable, of the filing of such petition. The 12 board shall, within 10 days after receipt of the notice, file with the clerk of the court the record of 13 the proceedings had before it, including all the evidence. The court or any judge thereof in 14 vacation may thereupon determine whether or not a review shall be granted. If review is granted 15 to a nonresident of this state, he or she shall be required to execute and file with the clerk before 16 an order or review shall become effective, a bond, with security to be approved by the clerk, 17 conditioned to perform any judgment which may be awarded against him or her. The board may 18 certify to the court and request its decision of any question of law arising upon the record, and 19 withhold its further proceeding in the case, pending the decision of court on the certified question, 20 or until notice that the court has declined to docket the same. If a review is granted or the certified 21 question is docketed for hearing, the clerk shall notify the board and the parties litigant or their 22 attorneys and the Insurance Commissioner, other private insurance carriers, and self-insured 23 employers, whichever is applicable, of that fact by mail. If a review is granted or the certified 24 question docketed, the case shall be heard by the court in the same manner as in other cases, 25 except that neither the record nor briefs need be printed. Every review granted or certified 26 question docketed prior to 30 days before the beginning of the term, shall be placed upon the 27 docket for that term. The Attorney General shall, without extra compensation, represent the board 28 in such cases. The court shall determine the matter brought before it and certify its decision to 29 the board and to the commission. The cost of the proceedings on petition, including a reasonable 30 attorney's fee, not exceeding $30 to the claimant's attorney, shall be fixed by the court and taxed 31 against the employer if the latter is unsuccessful. If the claimant, or the commission (in case the 32 latter is the applicant for review) is unsuccessful, the costs, not including attorney's fees, shall be 33 taxed against the commission, payable out of the Workers' Compensation Fund, or shall be taxed 34 against the claimant, in the discretion of the court: But there shall be no cost taxed upon a certified 35 question.

36 (c) In reviewing a decision of the Board of Review, the Supreme Court of Appeals shall 37 consider the record provided by the board and give deference to the board's findings, reasoning, 38 and conclusions, in accordance with subsections (d) and (e) of this section.

39 (d) If the decision of the board represents an affirmation of a prior ruling by both the 40 commission and the Office of Judges that was entered on the same issue in the same claim, the 41 decision of the board may be reversed or modified by the Supreme Court of Appeals only if the 42 decision is in clear violation of constitutional or statutory provision, is clearly the result of 43 erroneous conclusions of law, or is based upon the board's material misstatement or 44 mischaracterization of particular components of the evidentiary record. The court may not conduct 45 a de novo reweighing of the evidentiary record. If the court reverses or modifies a decision of the 46 board pursuant to this subsection, it shall state with specificity the basis for the reversal or 47 modification and the manner in which the decision of the board clearly violated constitutional or 48 statutory provisions, resulted from erroneous conclusions of law, or was based upon the board's 49 material misstatement or mischaracterization of particular components of the evidentiary record.

50 (e) If the decision of the board effectively represents a reversal of a prior ruling of either 51 the commission or the Office of Judges that was entered on the same issue in the same claim, 52 the decision of the board may be reversed or modified by the Supreme Court of Appeals only if 53 the decision is in clear violation of constitutional or statutory provisions, is clearly the result of 54 erroneous conclusions of law, or is so clearly wrong based upon the evidentiary record that even 55 when all inferences are resolved in favor of the board's findings, reasoning, and conclusions, 56 there is insufficient support to sustain the decision. The court may not conduct a de novo 57 reweighing of the evidentiary record. If the court reverses or modifies a decision of the board 58 pursuant to this subsection, it shall state with specificity the basis for the reversal or modification 59 and the manner in which the decision of the board clearly violated constitutional or statutory 60 provisions, resulted from erroneous conclusions of law, or was so clearly wrong based upon the 61 evidentiary record that even when all inferences are resolved in favor of the board's findings, 62 reasoning, and conclusions, there is insufficient support to sustain the decision.

§23-5-16. Fees of attorney for claimant; unlawful charging or receiving of attorney fees; effective until June 30, 2022.

1 (a) An attorney's fee in excess of 20 percent of any award granted may not be charged or 2 received by an attorney for a claimant or dependent. In no case may the fee received by the 3 attorney of the claimant or dependent be in excess of 20 percent of the benefits to be paid during 4 a period of 208 weeks. The interest on disability or dependent benefits as provided in this chapter
5 may not be considered as part of the award in determining the attorney's fee. However, any 6 contract entered into in excess of 20 percent of the benefits to be paid during a period of 208
7 weeks, as herein provided, is unlawful and unenforceable as contrary to the public policy of this
8 state and any fee charged or received by an attorney in violation thereof is an unlawful practice
9 and renders the attorney subject to disciplinary action.

10 (b) On a final settlement an attorney may charge a fee not to exceed 20 percent of the 11 total value of the medical and indemnity benefits: Provided, That this attorney's fee, when 12 combined with any fees previously charged or received by the attorney for permanent partial 13 disability or permanent total disability benefits may not exceed 20 percent of an award of benefits
14 to be paid during a period of 208 weeks.

15 (c) Except attorney's fees and costs recoverable pursuant to §23-2C-21(c) of this code,
16 an attorney's fee for successful recovery of denied medical benefits may be charged or received 17 by an attorney, and paid by the private carrier or self-insured employer, for a claimant or 18 dependent under this section. In no event may attorney's fees and costs be awarded pursuant to 19 both this section and §23-2C-21(c) of this code.

20 (1) If a claimant successfully prevails in a proceeding relating to a denial of medical 21 benefits brought before the commission, successor to the commission, other private carrier, or 22 self-insured employer, whichever is applicable, as a result of utilization review, arbitration,

23 mediation, or other proceedings, or a combination thereof, relating to denial of medical benefits 24 before the Office of Judges, Board of Review, or court, there shall additionally be charged against 25 the private carriers or self-insured employers, whichever is applicable, the reasonable costs and 26 reasonable hourly attorney fees of the claimant. Following the successful resolution of the denial 27 in favor of the claimant, a fee petition shall be submitted by the claimant's attorney to the Insurance 28 Commissioner or his or her successors, arbitrators, mediator, the Office of Judges, the Board of 29 Review, or court, whichever enters a final decision on the issue. An attorney representing a 30 claimant must submit a claim for attorney fees and costs within 30 days following a decision in 31 which the claimant prevails and the order becomes final.

32 (2) The Insurance Commissioner or his or her successors, arbitrators, mediator, the Office
33 of Judges, the Board of Review, or court shall enter an order within 30 days awarding reasonable 34 attorney fees not to exceed $125 per hour and reasonable costs of the claimant to be paid by the 35 private carriers or self-insured employers, whichever is applicable, which shall be paid as directed.
36 In no event may an award of the claimant's attorney's fees under this subsection exceed $500 37 per litigated medical issue, not to exceed $2,500 in a claim.

38 (3) In determining the reasonableness of the attorney fees to be awarded, the Insurance 39 Commission, arbitrator, mediator, Office of Judges, Board of Review, or court shall consider the 40 experience of the attorney, the complexity of the issue, the hours expended, and the contingent 41 nature of the fee.

42 (d) This section is of no force and effect after June 30, 2022.

§23-5-16a. Fees of attorney for claimant; unlawful charging or receiving of attorney fees.

43 (a) An attorney's fee in excess of 20 percent of any award granted may not be charged or 44 received by an attorney for a claimant or dependent. In no case may the fee received by the 45 attorney of the claimant or dependent be in excess of 20 percent of the benefits, to be paid during 46 a period of 208 weeks. The interest on disability or dependent benefits, as provided in this chapter, 47 may not be considered as part of the award in determining the attorney's fee. However, any

48 contract entered into in excess of 20 percent of the benefits to be paid during a period of 208
49 weeks, as herein provided, is unlawful and unenforceable as contrary to the public policy of this
50 state and any fee charged or received by an attorney in violation thereof is an unlawful practice
51 and renders the attorney subject to disciplinary action.

52 (b) On a final settlement an attorney may charge a fee not to exceed 20 percent of the 53 total value of the medical and indemnity benefits: Provided, That this attorney's fee, when 54 combined with any fees previously charged or received by the attorney for permanent partial 55 disability or permanent total disability benefits may not exceed 20 percent of an award of benefits
56 to be paid during a period of 208 weeks.

57 (c) Except attorney's fees and costs recoverable pursuant to §23-2C-21(c) of this code,
58 an attorney's fee for successful recovery of denied medical benefits may be charged or received 59 by an attorney and paid by the private carrier or self-insured employer, for a claimant or dependent 60 under this section. In no event may attorney's fees and costs be awarded pursuant to both this 61 section and §23-2C-21(c) of this code.

62 (1) If a claimant successfully prevails in a proceeding relating to a denial of medical 63 benefits brought before the Insurance Commissioner, other private carrier, or self-insured 64 employer, whichever is applicable, as a result of utilization review, arbitration, mediation, or other 65 proceedings, or a combination thereof, relating to denial of medical benefits before the Workers' 66 Compensation Board of Review, or a court, there shall additionally be charged against the private 67 carriers or self-insured employers, whichever is applicable, the reasonable costs and reasonable 68 hourly attorney's fees of the claimant. Following the successful resolution of the denial in favor of 69 the claimant, a fee petition shall be submitted by the claimant's attorney to the Insurance 70 Commissioner or his or her successors, arbitrators, mediator, the Workers' Compensation Board 71 of Review, or a court, whichever enters a final decision on the issue. An attorney representing a 72 claimant must submit a claim for attorney's fees and costs within 30 days following a decision in 73 which the claimant prevails and the order becomes final.

74 (2) The Insurance Commissioner or his or her successors, arbitrators, mediators, the 75 Workers' Compensation Board of Review, or a court shall enter an order within 30 days awarding 76 reasonable attorney's fees not to exceed $125 per hour and reasonable costs of the claimant to 77 be paid by the private carriers or self-insured employers, whichever is applicable, which shall be 78 paid as directed. In no event may an award of the claimant's attorney's fees under this subsection 79 exceed $500 per litigated medical issue, not to exceed $2,500 in a claim.

80 (3) In determining the reasonableness of the attorney's fees to be awarded, the Insurance 81 Commissioner, arbitrator, mediator, Workers' Compensation Board of Review, or court shall 82 consider the experience of the attorney, the complexity of the issue, the hours expended, and the 83 contingent nature of the fee.

84 (d) This section becomes effective on July 1, 2022.

CHAPTER 29A. STATE ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES ACT.

ARTICLE 5. CONTESTED CASES.

§29A-5-4. Judicial review of contested cases.

1 (a) Any party adversely affected by a final order or decision in a contested case is entitled 2 to judicial review thereof under this chapter, but nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to prevent 3 other means of review, redress, or relief provided by law.

4 (b) Proceedings for review of any final order or decision issued on or before June 30, 5 2022, shall be instituted by filing a petition, at the election of the petitioner, in either the Circuit
6 Court of Kanawha County, West Virginia, or in the circuit court of the county in which the petitioner 7 or any one of the petitioners resides or does business, or with the judge thereof in vacation, within 8 30 days after the date upon which such party received notice of the final order or decision of the 9 agency. Notwithstanding any provision of this code to the contrary, proceedings for judicial review 10 of any final order or decision issued after June 30, 2022, must be instituted by filing an appeal to 11 the Intermediate Court of Appeals as provided in §51-11-1 et seq. of this code. A copy of the 12 petition shall be served upon the agency and all other parties of record by registered or certified 13 mail. The petition shall state whether the appeal is taken on questions of law or questions of fact, 14 or both. No appeal bond shall be required to affect any such appeal.

15 (c) The filing of the petition shall not stay enforcement of the agency order or decision or 16 act as a supersedeas thereto, but the agency may stay such enforcement, and the appellant, at 17 any time after the filing of his or her petition, may apply to such court for a stay of or supersedeas 18 to such final order or decision. Pending the appeal, the court may grant a stay or supersedeas 19 upon such terms as it deems proper.

20 (d) Within 15 days after receipt of a copy of the petition by the agency, or within such 21 further time as the court may allow, the agency shall transmit to such court the original or a 22 certified copy of the entire record of the proceeding under review, including a transcript of all 23 testimony and all papers, motions, documents, evidence, and records as were before the agency, 24 all agency staff memoranda submitted in connection with the case, and a statement of matters 25 officially noted; but, by stipulation of all parties to the review proceeding, the record may be 26 shortened. The expense of preparing such record shall be taxed as a part of the costs of the 27 appeal. The appellant shall provide security for costs satisfactory to the court. Any party 28 unreasonably refusing to stipulate to limit the record may be taxed by the court for the additional 29 costs involved. Upon demand by any party to the appeal, the agency shall furnish, at the cost of 30 the party requesting same, a copy of such record. In the event the complete record is not filed 31 with the court within the time provided for in this section, the appellant may apply to the court to 32 have the case docketed, and the court shall order such record filed.

33 (e) Appeals taken on questions of law, fact, or both, shall be heard upon assignments of 34 error filed in the cause or set out in the briefs of the appellant. Errors not argued by brief may be 35 disregarded, but the court may consider and decide errors which are not assigned or argued. The 36 court or judge shall fix a date and time for the hearing on the petition, but such hearing, unless by

37 agreement of the parties, shall not be held sooner than 10 days after the filing of the petition, and 38 notice of such date and time shall be forthwith given to the agency.

39 (f) The review shall be conducted by the court without a jury and shall be upon the record 40 made before the agency, except that in cases of alleged irregularities in procedure before the 41 agency, not shown in the record, testimony thereon may be taken before the court. The court may 42 hear oral arguments and require written briefs.

43 (g) The court may affirm the order or decision of the agency or remand the case for further 44 proceedings. It shall reverse, vacate, or modify the order or decision of the agency if the 45 substantial rights of the petitioner or petitioners have been prejudiced because the administrative 46 findings, inferences, conclusions, decision, or order are:

47 (1) In violation of constitutional or statutory provisions;

48 (2) In excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the agency;

49 (3) Made upon unlawful procedures;

50 (4) Affected by other error of law;

51 (5) Clearly wrong in view of the reliable, probative, and substantial evidence on the whole 52 record; or

53 (6) Arbitrary or capricious or characterized by abuse of discretion or clearly unwarranted
54 exercise of discretion.

55 (h) The judgment of the circuit court or the Intermediate Court of Appeals, whichever is 56 applicable, shall be final unless reversed, vacated, or modified on appeal to the Supreme Court 57 of Appeals of this state in accordance with the provisions of §29A-6-1 of this code.

ARTICLE 6. APPEALS.

§29A-6-1. Supreme Court of Appeals.

1 (a) Any party adversely affected by the final judgment of the circuit court under this chapter
2 may seek review thereof by appeal to the Supreme Court of Appeals of this state, and jurisdiction 3 is hereby conferred upon such court to hear and entertain such appeals upon application made

4 therefor in the manner and within the time provided by law for civil appeals generally: Provided,
5 That a circuit court has no jurisdiction to review a final order or decision in a contested case issued 6 after June 30, 2022.

7 (b) Any party adversely affected by the final order, decision, or judgment of the 8 Intermediate Court of Appeals under this chapter may seek review thereof by petition to the 9 Supreme Court of Appeals, pursuant to the requirements of §51-11-1 et seq. of this code.

ARTICLE 2A. FAMILY COURTS.

§51-2A-24. Review by Intermediate Court of Appeals; transfer of jurisdiction from circuit court.

2 decision entered by a family court after June 30, 2022, must be made to the Intermediate Court 3 of Appeals, as provided in §51-11-1 et seq. of this code.

4 (b) Notwithstanding any provision of this code to the contrary, a circuit court has no 5 jurisdiction to review a final order or decision entered by a family court after June 30, 2022, if 6 review of the final order or decision is within the jurisdiction of the Intermediate Court of Appeals, 7 as provided in §51-11-5 of this code.
