2 relating generally to inmate good time; updating references to personnel; clarifying that 3 inmates in the custody of the Commissioner of the Division of Corrections and 4 Rehabilitation receive basic good time unless expressly excluded; creating certain

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 4. CORRECTIONS MANAGEMENT.

§15A-4-17. Deduction from sentence for good conduct; mandatory supervision.

1 (a) All adult inmates placed in the custody of the Commissioner of the Division of 2 Corrections and Rehabilitation pursuant to a term of court-ordered incarceration for a 3 misdemeanor or felony, except those committed pursuant to §25-4-1 et seq. and §62-12-26 of 4 this code, shall be granted commutation from their sentences for good conduct in accordance 5 with this section: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be considered to recalculate the 6 “good time” of inmates currently serving a sentence or of giving back good time to inmates who 7 have previously lost good time earned for a disciplinary violation: Provided, however, That as of 8 the effective date of the amendments to this section enacted during the regular session of the 9 Legislature, 2021, an inmate who had good time calculated into his or her release date prior to 10 October 21, 2020, is entitled to the benefit of the good time awarded or earned before that date, 11 unless the good time was lost due to a disciplinary violation.

12 (b) The commutation of sentence, known as “good time”, shall be deducted from the 13 maximum term of indeterminate sentences or from the fixed term of determinate sentences.

14 (c) Each eligible inmate committed to the custody of the commissioner and incarcerated 15 in a facility pursuant to that commitment shall be granted one day good time for each day he or 16 she is incarcerated, including any and all days in jail awaiting sentence which are credited by the 17 sentencing court to his or her sentence pursuant to §61-11-24 of this code, or for any other reason
18 relating to the commitment. An inmate may not be granted any good time for time served either 19 on parole or bond or in any other status when he or she is not physically incarcerated.

20 (d) An inmate sentenced to serve a life sentence is not eligible to earn or receive any good 21 time pursuant to this section.

22 (e) An eligible inmate under two or more consecutive sentences shall be allowed good 23 time as if the several sentences, when the maximum terms of the consecutive sentences are 24 added together, were all one sentence.

25 (f) The commissioner shall promulgate disciplinary rules and policies. The rules and 26 policies shall describe acts that inmates are prohibited from committing, procedures for charging 27 individual inmates for violation of the rules, and for determining the guilt or innocence of inmates 28 charged with the violations, and the sanctions which may be imposed for the violations. A copy of 29 the rules shall be given to each inmate. For each violation any part or all of the good time which 30 has been granted to the inmate pursuant to this section may be forfeited and revoked by the 31 superintendent of the institution in which the violation occurred. The superintendent, when 32 appropriate and with approval of the commissioner, may restore any forfeited good time.

33 (g) Each inmate, upon his or her commitment to, and being placed into the custody of, the 34 commissioner, or upon his or her return to custody as the result of violation of parole under §62-
35 12-19 of this code, or supervised release under §62-12-26 of this code shall be given a statement
36 setting forth the term or length of his or her sentence or sentences and the time of his or her 37 minimum discharge computed according to this section.

38 (h) Each inmate shall be given a revision of the statement described in subsection (g) of 39 this section when any part or all of the good time has been forfeited and revoked or restored

40 pursuant to subsection (f) of this section, by which the time of his or her earliest discharge is 41 changed.

42 (i)(1) An eligible inmate may receive extra good time in the sole discretion of the 43 commissioner for meritorious service or performing extra assigned duties during emergencies;

47 receive up to 90 days good time per program for successfully completing an approved, but not 48 required, academic or vocational program, which is not part of the inmate's required individualized
49 reentry programming plan. The commissioner shall adopt a written policy to effectuate the purposes 50 of this subsection.

51 (j) There shall be no grants or accumulations of good time or credit to any inmate serving 52 a sentence in the custody of the Division of Corrections and Rehabilitation except in the manner 53 provided in this section.

54 (k) Prior to the calculated discharge date of an inmate serving a sentence for a felony 55 crime of violence against the person, a felony offense where the victim was a minor child, or a 56 felony offense involving the use of a firearm, one year shall be deducted from the inmate's 57 accumulated good time to provide for one year of mandatory post-release supervision following
58 the first instance in which the inmate reaches his or her calculated discharge date. All inmates 59 released pursuant to this subsection are subject to electronic or GPS monitoring for the entire 60 period of supervision. The provisions of this subsection are applicable to offenses committed on 61 or after July 1, 2013.

62 (l) Upon sentencing of an inmate for a felony offense not referenced in subsection (k) of 63 this section, the court may order that 180 days of the sentence, or some lesser period, be served
64 through post-release mandatory supervision if the court determines supervision is appropriate
65 and in the best interest of justice, rehabilitation, and public safety. All inmates released pursuant 66 to this subsection are subject to electronic or GPS monitoring for the entire period of supervision.

67 The provisions of this subsection are applicable to offenses committed on or after July 1, 2013.

68 (m) The commissioner shall adopt policies and procedures to implement the mandatory 71 parole.

79 (p) The Division of Corrections and Rehabilitation, its commissioner, employees, agents, 80 and assigns, shall be granted absolute immunity from liability from any claims or actions of any 81 person serving, or who has served, a term of incarceration pursuant to §62-12-26 of this code, for 82 any matter or claim arising out of good time calculations or awards which may or may not have 83 been awarded, given, removed, or taken which caused a person to be reincarcerated or to 84 increase the expected term of his or her incarceration, which calculation, award, removal, taking,
85 or reincarceration occurred prior to the effective date of the amendments to this section enacted
86 during the regular session of the Legislature, 2021.
