“§78-27-3. Substantiation of abuse and neglect.

1 The Bureau may consider an allegation against a person of abuse or neglect of a child to
2 have been substantiated for purposes of its records in either of the following two circumstances:

3 (a) The allegation of abuse or neglect has been the subject of a petition under chapter 49
4 of this code, that resulted in an adjudication finding that the person committed one or more acts
5 of abuse or neglect of a child, and that adjudication has not been reversed or vacated on appeal;
6 or

7 (b) The Bureau, as a result of its own investigation has determined that an allegation
8 against a person of abuse or neglect of a child has been substantiated, whether or not there has
9 a been adjudication under subsection (a) of this section: Provided, that when there has been no
10 adjudication, sections four and five of this rule apply.

§78-27-4. Allegations of abuse or neglect substantiated on or before July 1, 2021.

1 (a) Any person may write to the Bureau and inquire if the Bureau has included him or her
2 in its records of persons against whom there has been a substantiated claim of abuse or neglect
3 of a child. The person making the inquiry shall provide the Bureau with his or her full name, date
4 of birth, address, and social security number.

5 (b) Within 30 days of the request, the Bureau shall inform the person that: (1) the Bureau
6 has no record of any substantiated claim against the person of abuse or neglect of a child; or (2)
7 the Bureau does have a record of a substantiated allegation against the person of abuse or 8 neglect of a child. If the substantiation is not based upon an adjudication described in subsection
9 (a), section three of this rule, the Bureau shall provide the notice required under section five of

10 this rule, and all of the rights and obligations of the Bureau and the person apply as if the Bureau's
11 substantiation had occurred after July 1, 2021.”;
