2023 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

House Bill 2265

By Delegate Pushkin

[Introduced January 11, 2023; Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary]

1 A BILL to amend and reenact §25-5-5 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating to
2 prohibiting the private ownership or operation of a prison in West Virginia.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 5. PRIVATE PRISONS.

§25-5-5. Prohibition of constructing or operating a correctional facility; exceptions.

1 (a) No person may operate a private prison facility or provide correctional services in this
2 state without first obtaining the written approval of the secretary.

3 (b) No person may construct, modify, lease, or otherwise alter a private prison facility
4 without first obtaining the written approval of the Regional Jail Authority.

5 (c) Nothing in this section shall impair the right of the state or its political subdivisions to
6 operate a prison facility or provide correctional services.

7 (d) No private contractor may operate a correctional facility in this state for the confinement
8 of maximum security inmates sentenced to a term of incarceration by a foreign court.

9 (e) Effective July 1, 2023, no person may own or operate a private prison facility in this 10 state.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to prohibit the private ownership or operation of prison facilities in West Virginia.
