	§33-62-6. Competitive market.
1	(a) A competitive market is presumed to exist for Travel Insurance unless the
2	commissioner, after hearing, determines that a reasonable degree of competition does not exist in
3	the market and the commissioner issues a ruling to that effect. Such ruling shall expire no later
4	than one year after issue unless the commissioner renews the ruling after hearing and a finding as
5	to the continued lack of a reasonable degree of competition.
6	(b) In determining whether a reasonable degree of competition exists, the commissioner
7	shall consider relevant tests of workable competition pertaining to market structure, market

9	market to acquire pricing and other consumer information and to compare and obtain insurance
10	from competing insurers. The tests for determining whether a competitive market exists shall

7	(c) Eligibility and underwriting standards for Travel Insurance may be developed and
8	provided based on Travel Protection Plans designed for individual or identified marketing or

29	a noncompetitive market under subparagraph 1(a)(ii), the inadequacy standards under
30	subparagraph 1(b), or the unfair discrimination standard under subparagraph 1(c), the following
31	criteria shall apply:
32	(A) Due consideration shall be given to past and prospective loss experience within and
33	outside this state; to the conflagration and catastrophe hazards; to a reasonable margin for profit

37	assessments and to all other relevant factors within and outside the state.
38	(B) Risks may be grouped by classifications for the establishment of rates and minimum
39	premiums. Classification rates may be modified to produce rates for risks in accordance with rating
40	plans that establish standards for measuring variations in hazards or expense provisions, or both.
41	Such standards may measure any differences among risks that can be demonstrated to have a
42	probable effect upon losses or expenses. No risk classification, however, may be based upon
43	race, creed, national origin, or the religion of the insured.
44	(C) The expense provisions included in the rates to be used by an insurer shall reflect the 45	operating methods of the insurer and its anticipated expenses.
46	(D) The rates may contain provision for contingencies and an allowance permitting a
47	reasonable profit. In determining the reasonableness of the profit, consideration shall be given to 48	all investment income attributable to the line of insurance.
	§33-62-8. Travel protection plans.
1	Travel Protection Plans may be offered for one price in this state if:
2	(a) There is no finding by the commissioner, pursuant to this Chapter that the Travel
3	Insurance market in the state is non-competitive or that the Travel Protection Plan restricts
4	competition by either significantly decreasing output or efficiency in the market or that a travel

5	insurer or Travel Retailer is exerting sufficient market power in providing Travel Insurance or
6	Travel Protection Plans such that competition is adversely impacted or that the Travel Protection
7	Plan would exact burdensome terms that would not exist in a competitive market;
8	(b) The Travel Insurance, Travel Assistance Services and Cancellation Fee Waivers are
9	clearly delineated in the Travel Protection Plan's fulfillment materials. The fulfillment materials
10	shall include the Travel Insurance disclosures required under state law and the contact information
