

WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE

2023 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

House Bill 3131

By Delegate Hillenbrand

[By Request]

[Introduced January 30, 2023; Referred to the Committee on Technology and Infrastructure then the Judiciary]

1 A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new section,
 2 designated §47-10-6b, relating to updating the definition for how gasoline may be
 3 marketed and sold.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 10. LIQUID FUELS AND LUBRICATING OILS.

§47-10-6b. Posting price of gasoline in whole dollars and cents.

1 Any retail distributor of gasoline in this state who sells gasoline to a consumer shall not
 2 have the gasoline priced, advertised, marketed, or sold in any form other than in whole dollars and 3 cents.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to provide that gasoline sold to a consumer in this state by a retailer shall not be priced, advertised, marketed, or sold at other than whole dollars and cents.

Strike-throughs indicate language that would be stricken from a heading or the present law and underscoring indicates new language that would be added.
