106 hearing to determine the validity of the seizure.

107 (2) The defendant may claim at any time prior to 60 days before trial of the related criminal 108 offense the right to possession of property by motion to the court for a writ of replevin by filing a
109 motion establishing the validity of the alleged interest in the property; which motion shall be heard 110 more than 30 days after it is filed.

111 (3) The state shall file an answer showing probable cause for the seizure, or cross motions
112 at least 10 days before the hearing.

113 (4) Either party may, by agreement or for good cause, move the court for one extension
114 of no more than 10 days. Any such motion may be supported by affidavits or other submissions.

115 (5) The court shall grant the motion if it finds by a preponderance of the evidence that:

116 (A) It is likely the final judgment will be that the state must return the property to the 117 claimant; or

118 (B) The property is not reasonably required to be held for investigatory reasons; or

119 (C) The property is the only reasonable means for a defendant to pay for legal 120 representation in the forfeiture or criminal proceeding. At the court's discretion under paragraph

121 (B) of this subdivision, it may order the return of funds or property sufficient to obtain legal counsel 122 but less than the total amount seized, and require an accounting.

123 (6) In lieu of ordering the issuance of the writ:

124 (A) The court may order the state to give security or written assurance for satisfaction of 125 any judgment, including damages, that may be rendered in the action; or 126 (B) The court may order other relief as may be just.

127 ~~(d)~~ (h)(1) If no answer or claim is filed within 30 days of the date of service of the petition
128 forfeiture charge pursuant to subsection ~~(b)~~ (d) of this section, or within 30 days of the first

129 publication pursuant to subsection ~~(b)~~ (d) of this section, upon conviction, then the court shall enter
130 an order forfeiting the seized property to the state. If any claim to the seized property is timely filed, 131 a time and place shall be set for a hearing upon such claim. The claimant or claimants shall be 132 given notice of such hearing not less than 10 days prior to the date set for the hearing.

133 (2) The litigation related to the forfeiture of property shall be held in a single proceeding
134 following the trial of the related alleged offense. The litigation associated with the forfeiture of 135 property of less than $10,000 in value shall be held before only a judge.

136 (e) (3) At the hearing upon the claim or claims, the state shall have the burden of proving by 137 a preponderance of the evidence that the seized property is subject to forfeiture pursuant to the 138 provisions of this chapter.

139 (i)(1) Within 30 days following entry of an order of forfeiture by the circuit court, the 140 defendant may petition the court to determine whether the forfeiture is unconstitutionally
141 excessive under the state or federal constitution.

142 (A) The defendant has the burden of establishing the forfeiture is grossly disproportional 143 to the seriousness of the offense by a preponderance of the evidence at a hearing conducted by 144 the court without a jury.

145 (B) In determining whether the forfeiture of an instrumentality is unconstitutionally 146 excessive, the court may consider all relevant factors, including, but not limited to:

147 (i) The seriousness of the offense and its impact on the community, including the duration
148 of the activity and the harm caused by the defendant;

149 (ii) The extent to which the defendant participated in the offense;

150 (iii) The extent to which the property was used in committing the offense;

151 (iv) The sentence imposed for committing the crime subject to forfeiture; and 152 (v) Whether the offense was completed or attempted.

153 (2) In determining the value of the instrumentality subject to forfeiture, the court may 154 consider all relevant factors, including, but not limited to:

155 (A) The fair market value of the property;

156 (B) The value of the property to the defendant including hardship to the defendant if the 157 forfeiture is realized, including any factors establishing a personal value to the defendant; and

158 (C) The hardship from the loss of a primary residence, motor vehicle, or other property to 159 the defendant's family members or others if the property is forfeited.

160 (3) The court may not consider the value of the instrumentality to the state in determining 161 whether the forfeiture of an instrumentality is constitutionally excessive.

162 (f) (j) Any order forfeiting property to the state and entered pursuant to this section perfects
163 the state's right, title and interest in the forfeited property and relates back to the date of seizure:
164 Provided, That in any proceeding under this article the circuit court shall in its final order make 165 specific findings with respect to whether or not probable cause to seize such property existed at 166 the time of such seizure.

167 (g) (k) During the pendency of a forfeiture proceeding, it is unlawful for any property owner
168 or holder of a bona fide security interest or other valid lienholder to transfer or attempt to transfer
169 any ownership interest or security interest in seized property with the intent to defeat the purpose
170 of this article, and the court wherein the petition for forfeiture is filed may enjoin a property owner or 171 holder of a security interest or other lienholder from making such a transfer should one come to its 172 attention. Any such transfer which is made in violation of the provisions of this subsection shall 173 have no effect upon an order of the court forfeiting seized property to the state if a notice of lis 174 pendens is filed prior to the recording of the instrument of transfer.

175 (h) (l) The court may void any transfer of property made before or after a forfeiture
176 proceeding has been commenced, which is subject to forfeiture, if the transfer was not to a bona 177 fide purchaser without notice for value.

178 (i) (m) An appeal of a decision of the circuit court concerning a forfeiture proceeding
179 brought pursuant to this chapter must be filed within 120 days of the date of entry of the final 180 appealable order. The appellant shall be required to give notice of intent to appeal within 30 days

181 of the entry of such appealable order.

182 (n) Nothing herein prevents property from being forfeited by plea agreement agreeing to 183 a forfeiture by the defendant and approved by the circuit court.

184 (o) The court may waive the conviction requirement upon a motion by the prosecuting
185 attorney that shows by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant:

186 (1) Died;

187 (2) Was deported by the U.S. government;

188 (3) Was granted immunity or reduced punishment in exchange for testifying or assisting 189 a law-enforcement investigation or prosecution;

190 (4) Fled the jurisdiction; or

191 (5) Abandoned the property.

192 (6) The property of a person who has fled the jurisdiction or who has abandoned property
193 shall be delivered to the State Treasurer within 30 days without further forfeiture-related litigation.

194 The State Treasurer shall dispose of all noncurrency property. The sale proceeds and currency
195 shall be deposited into the State's General Fund.

196 (p) Upon the prosecuting attorney's motion following conviction, the court may order the 197 forfeiture of substitute property owned by the defendant up to the value of unreachable property
198 that is beyond the court's jurisdiction or cannot be located through due diligence only if the state 199 proves by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant intentionally transferred, sold, or 200 deposited property with a third party to avoid the court's jurisdiction.

201 (q) Notwithstanding the prosecuting attorney's motion for a waiver, the property remains 202 subject to claims by innocent owners, creditors, and other third parties pursuant to this chapter.

203 (r) A party to forfeiture litigation may appeal the circuit court's decision regarding the 204 seizure, forfeiture, and distribution of property under this chapter.

§60A-7-709. Secured Interests.

1 (a) Property encumbered by a bona fide security interest is not subject to forfeiture. A
2 person claiming a security interest must establish by a preponderance of the evidence the validity
3 of the interest perfected under chapter 46 and other appropriate provisions of this code or produce
4 a lease or rental agreement.

5 (b) The prosecuting authority shall summarily return seized property to the person with a 6 bona fide security interest.

7 (c) If the person alleging a valid security interest had actual knowledge of the underlying 8 crime giving rise to the forfeiture, the state may seek to proceed with the forfeiture against the 9 property, the state shall prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the person had such actual 10 knowledge.

§60A-7-710. Innocent Owner.

1 (a) The property of an innocent owner may not be forfeited.

2 (b) An innocent owner having an ownership interest in property subject to forfeiture
3 existing at the time that the illegal conduct giving rise to forfeiture occurred bears the burden of 4 proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the said innocent owner has a legal right, title, or
5 interest in the property seized under this chapter.

6 (c) If the requirements of subsection (b) of this section are satisfied and the state seeks to 7 proceed with the forfeiture, the state shall prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the 8 alleged innocent owner had actual or constructive knowledge of the underlying crime giving rise to 9 the forfeiture.

10 (d) A person who acquired an ownership interest in property subject to forfeiture after the 11 commission of a crime giving rise to the forfeiture and who claims to be an innocent owner bears 12 the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the person has legal right, title, or 13 interest in the property seized under this chapter.

14 (e) If the requirements of subsection (d) of this section are met and the state seeks to 15 proceed with the forfeiture against the property, the state shall prove by a preponderance of the 16 evidence that at the time the person acquired the property the person:

17 (1) Had actual or constructive knowledge that the property was subject to forfeiture; or

18 (2) Was not a bona fide purchaser without notice of any defect in title and for valuable 19 consideration.

20 (f) If the state fails to meet its burden in subsections (c) or (e) of this section, the court shall 21 find that the person is an innocent owner and shall order the state to relinquish all claims of title to 22 the property.

23 (g) The suspect or convicted offender may invoke the right against self-incrimination or the 24 marital privilege at the civil hearing. The trier of fact in the civil hearing may draw an adverse 25 inference from the invocation of the right or privilege.

§60A-7-711. Seizure of personal property with process; seizure of personal property without process; seizure of real property with process; receipt.

1 (a) At the request of the state at any time, a court may issue an ex parte preliminary order
2 to attach, seize, or secure personal property for which forfeiture is sought and to provide for its 3 custody. Application, issuance, execution, and return are subject to state statute or court rules.

4 (b) Personal property subject to forfeiture may be seized at anytime without a court order if:

5 (1) The seizure of personal property is incident to a lawful arrest or a search lawfully 6 conducted;

7 (2) The personal property subject to seizure has been the subject of a prior judgment in 8 favor of the state; or

9 (3) The state has probable cause to believe that the delay occasioned by the necessity to 10 obtain process would result in the removal or destruction of the personal property and that the 11 personal property is forfeitable under this chapter.

12 (c)(1) Seizure of real property requires a court order. A court may issue an order to seize or 13 secure real property for which forfeiture is sought only after proper notice to property owners and 14 an opportunity for a contested hearing to determine the sufficiency of probable cause for the 15 seizure.

16 (2) Nothing in this section prohibits the prosecuting authority from seeking a lis pendens or 17 restraining order to hinder the sale or destruction of the real property.

18 (3) Application, issuance, execution, and return of any order are subject to state law.

19 (d) When property is seized, the law-enforcement officer shall give an itemized receipt to 20 the person possessing the property; or in the absence of any person, leave a receipt in the place 21 where the property was found, if reasonably possible.

§60A-7-712. No additional remedies; no joint-and-several liability.

1 (a) The state may not seek personal money judgments or other remedies not provided for 2 in this chapter.

3 (b) A defendant is not jointly and severally liable for forfeiture awards owed by other
4 defendants. When ownership is unclear, a court may order each defendant to forfeit property on a 5 pro rata basis or by another means the court finds equitable.

§60A-7-713. Title.

1 (a) At the time of seizure or entry of a restraining order, the state acquires provisional title to 2 the seized property. Provisional title authorizes the state to hold and protect the property.

3 (b) Title to the property vests with the state when the trier of fact renders a final forfeiture
4 verdict and relates back to the time when the state acquired provisional title. However, this title is 5 subject to claims by third parties adjudicated under this chapter.

§60A-7-714. Disposition of forfeited property and proceeds.

1 (a) At any time when unclaimed property or contraband held for evidentiary purposes is no

3 days, or, in the case of contraband, be destroyed within 30 days.

4 (b) If the forfeiture is granted, the court may order the property be delivered to the State
5 Treasurer within 30 days.

6 (c) Upon motion, the court may order that a portion of the currency seized or proceeds from 7 public auction be used to pay reasonable nonpersonnel expenses of the seizure, storage, and 8 maintenance of custody of any forfeited items.

9 (d) All abandoned property shall be delivered to the State Treasurer within 30 days.

10 (e) The State Treasurer shall dispose of all noncurrency forfeited and abandoned property
11 at public auction. The auction proceeds and forfeited currency shall first be used to pay all 12 outstanding recorded liens on the forfeited property, then to comply with an order of the court to 13 pay reasonable nonpersonnel expenses, with all remaining funds to be deposited into the State's 14 General Fund.

§60A-7-715. Prohibition on retaining property; sale restrictions; reporting; return of property, damages, and costs.

2 or sell it directly or indirectly to any employee of the agency, to a person related to an employee by 3 blood or marriage, or to another law-enforcement agency.

4 (b) On an annual basis, each law-enforcement agency shall report the following 5 information about seizures and forfeitures completed by the agency under state forfeiture law and 6 federal forfeiture law:

7 (1) The total number of seizures of currency;

8 (2) The total number of seizures and the number of items in each class of property seized

9 including vehicles, houses, and other types of property seized.

10 (3) The market value of each class of property seized including currency, vehicles, houses, 11 and other types of property seized.

12 (4) The total number of occurrences of each class of crime underlying the forfeitures
13 including controlled substances, driving while intoxicated, and other crimes.

14 (c) The Department of Military Affairs and Public Safety may require that information not 15 specified in this section also be reported. The department shall develop standard forms, 16 processes, and deadlines for electronic data entry for annual submission of forfeiture data by law-
17 enforcement agencies.

18 (d) Each law-enforcement agency shall file with the department the report required under 19 subsection (b) of this section for the law-enforcement agency and the corresponding prosecuting
20 authority. The law-enforcement agency shall file separate reports for forfeitures completed under 21 state forfeiture law and federal forfeiture law. A null report shall be filed by a law-enforcement
22 agency that did not engage in seizures or forfeitures during the reporting period. The department 23 shall compile the submissions and issue an aggregate report of all forfeitures in the state.

24 (e) By April 1 of each year, the department shall make available on its website the reports
25 submitted by law-enforcement agencies and its aggregate report.

26 (f) The law-enforcement agency that holds the property shall return property to the owner 27 within a reasonable period of time not to exceed five days after:

28 (1) The court finds that the owner had a bona fide security interest;

29 (2) The court finds that the owner was an innocent owner;

30 (3) The acquittal of or dismissal of the owner of the criminal charge that is the basis of the 31 forfeiture proceedings; or

32 (4) The disposal of the criminal charge that is the basis of the forfeiture proceedings by 33 nolle prosequi.

34 (g) The law-enforcement agency that holds the property is responsible for any damages,

4 sale of contraband, or

5 (2) The seized property is not forfeitable under state law and may only be forfeited under 6 federal law.
