any one or more of the mitigating circumstances enumerated in §61-2-2c of this code. Any person

5 otherwise convicted of murder in the first degree is sentenced to confinement in a state 6 correctional facility for life without probation or parole. §61-2-2a. Sentencing procedures murder the first for in degree. 1 (a) Procedure in jury trials. --2 After a verdict of murder in the first degree is recorded and before the jury is discharged, 3 the court shall conduct a separate sentencing hearing in which the jury shall determine whether 4 the defendant shall be sentenced to death or life imprisonment. In the sentencing hearing, 5 evidence may be presented as to any matter that the court determines relevant and admissible on 6 the question of the sentence to be imposed, including evidence relating to any of the aggravating 7 or mitigating circumstances specified in §61-2-2b and §61-2-2c of this code. Evidence of 8 aggravating circumstances shall be limited to those circumstances specified in §61-2-2b of this 9 code. After the presentation of evidence, the court shall permit counsel to present argument for 10 and against the sentence of death. The court shall then instruct the jury in accordance with 11 subsection (c) of this section. Failure of the jury to unanimously agree upon a sentence does not 12 impeach or in any way affect the guilty verdict previously recorded. 13 (b) Procedure in nonjury trials and guilty pleas. --14 If the defendant waives a jury trial or pleads guilty, the sentencing proceeding shall be 15 conducted before a jury impaneled for that purpose unless waived by the defendant with the 16 consent of the state, in which latter case the trial judge shall hear the evidence and determine the 17 penalty in the same manner as would a jury. 18 (c) Instructions to jury. --19 Before retiring to determine the imposition of sentence, the jury shall be instructed by the 20 court as to the following:

(1) The aggravating circumstances specified in §61-2-2b of this code for which any evidence has been presented;

24	any evidence has been presented;
25	(3) Aggravating circumstances must be proved by the state beyond a reasonable doubt.
26	Mitigating circumstances must be proved by the defendant by a preponderance of the evidence;
27	(4) The sentence shall be a sentence of death if the jury unanimously finds the aggravating
28	circumstance specified in §61-2-2b of this code and no mitigating circumstance or if the jury
29	unanimously finds one or more aggravating circumstances which outweigh all mitigating
30	circumstances. The sentence shall be life imprisonment without probation or parole in all other
31	cases;
32	(5) The court may discharge the jury if it is of the opinion that further deliberation will not
33	result in a unanimous agreement as to the sentence, in which case the court shall sentence the
34	defendant to life imprisonment; and
35	(6) The court shall instruct the jury on any other matter that may be just and proper under
36	the circumstances.
	§61-2-2b. Aggravating circumstances for imposition of capital punishment.
