2025 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

House Bill 2133

By Delegates Holstein and Flanigan

[Introduced February 12, 2025; referred to the Committee on Health and Human Resources
then to the Judiciary]

1 A BILL to amend and reenact §23-4-15 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating to 2 clarifying that the time limitations provided for filing occupational pneumoconiosis claims 3 do not apply or otherwise limit the ability of a claimant to obtain an evaluation from the 4 Occupational Pneumoconiosis Board.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 4. DISABILITY AND DEATH BENEFITS.

§23-4-15. Application for benefits.

1 (a) To entitle any employee or dependent of a deceased employee to compensation under 2 this chapter, other than for occupational pneumoconiosis or other occupational disease, the 3 application for compensation shall be made on the form or forms prescribed by the Insurance
4 Commissioner, and filed with the Insurance Commissioner, private carrier or self-insured
5 employer, whichever is applicable, within six months from and after the injury or death, as the case
6 may be, and unless filed within the six months period, the right to compensation under this chapter 7 is forever barred, such time limitation being hereby declared to be a condition of the right and 8 hence jurisdictional, and all proofs of dependency in fatal cases must also be filed with the 9 commission within six months from and after the death. In case the employee is mentally or 10 physically incapable of filing the application, it may be filed by his or her attorney or by a member of 11 his or her family.

12 (b) To entitle any employee to compensation for occupational pneumoconiosis under the 13 provisions of this subsection, the application for compensation shall be made on the form or forms
14 prescribed by the Insurance Commissioner, and filed with the Insurance Commissioner, private 15 carrier or self-insured employer, whichever is applicable, within three years from and after the last 16 day of the last continuous period of sixty days or more during which the employee was exposed to 17 the hazards of occupational pneumoconiosis or within three years from and after a diagnosed 18 impairment due to occupational pneumoconiosis was made known to the employee by a physician 19 and unless filed within the three-year period, the right to compensation under this chapter is

20 forever barred, such time limitation being hereby declared to be a condition of the right and ~~hence~~ 21 therefore jurisdictional, or, in the case of death, the application shall be filed by the dependent of 22 the employee within two years from and after the employee's death, and such time limitation is a
23 condition of the right and ~~hence~~ therefore jurisdictional: Provided, That nothing in this section may 24 limit the time within which a claimant may obtain an evaluation from the Occupational 25 Pneumoconiosis Board nor limit the applicability of §23-4-8c of this code.

26 (c) To entitle any employee to compensation for occupational disease other than 27 occupational pneumoconiosis under the provisions of this section, the application for 28 compensation shall be made on the form or forms prescribed by the Insurance Commissioner, and 29 filed with the Insurance Commissioner, private carrier or self-insured employer, whichever is 30 applicable, within three years from and after the day on which the employee was last exposed to 31 the particular occupational hazard involved or within three years from and after the employee's 32 occupational disease was made known to him or her by a physician or which he or she should 33 reasonably have known, whichever last occurs, and unless filed within the three-year period, the 34 right to compensation under this chapter shall be forever barred, such time limitation being hereby 35 declared to be a condition of the right and therefore jurisdictional, or, in case of death, the 36 application shall be filed as aforesaid by the dependent of the employee within one year from and 37 after the employee's death, and such time limitation is a condition of the right and hence 38 jurisdictional.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to clarify that the time limitations provided for filing occupational pneumoconiosis claims in this section does not apply to or otherwise limit the ability of a claimant to obtain an evaluation from the Occupational Pneumoconiosis Board.
