

WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE

2025 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

House Bill 2198

By Delegate Steele

[Introduced February 12, 2025; referred to the Committee on the Judiciary]

1 A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, as amended, by adding thereto a new section, 2 designated §62-12-30, relating to extended supervision for certain drug offenders;
3 establishing supervised release penalty of up to 10 years for certain drug offenders;
4 establishing when period of supervised release begins; providing for supervision by 5 multijudicial circuit probation officers; clarifying terms of supervised release same as those 6 for probation; establishing a fee for supervised release; establishing that court may modify 7 or revoke supervised release; providing court required probation officer provide written 8 conditions; providing for supervised release following revocation; providing for delayed 9 revocation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 12. PROBATION AND PAROLE.

§62-12-30. Extended supervision for certain drug offenders; sentencing; conditions; supervision provisions; supervision fee.

1 (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this code to the contrary, any defendant
2 convicted after the effective date of this section of a violation of §60A-4-401 or §60A-4-409 for the 3 delivery of controlled substances in schedule I, II, and III in chapter 60A of this code, excluding
4 marijuana, or for the possession with intent to deliver controlled substances in schedule I, II, and III
5 in chapter 60A of this code, excluding marijuana, a conviction under §60A-4-411, a conviction 6 under §60A-4-414, excluding marijuana, or a conviction under §60A-4-416, shall, as part of the 7 sentence imposed at final disposition, be required to serve, in addition to any other penalty or 8 condition imposed by the court, a period of supervised release of up to 10 years: Provided, That 9 pursuant to the provisions of subsection (g) of this section, a court may modify, terminate, or 10 revoke any term of supervised release imposed pursuant to subsection (a) of this section.

11 (b) The period of supervised release imposed by the provisions of this section shall begin 12 upon the expiration of any period of probation, the expiration of any sentence of incarceration or 13 the expiration of any period of parole supervision imposed or required of the person so convicted,

14 whichever expires later.

15 (c) Any person sentenced to a period of supervised release pursuant to the provisions of 16 this section shall be supervised by a multijudicial circuit probation officer, if available. Until such 17 time as a multijudicial circuit probation officer is available, the offender shall be supervised by the 18 probation office of the sentencing court or of the circuit in which he or she resides.

19 (d) A defendant sentenced to a period of supervised release shall be subject to any or all of 20 the conditions applicable to a person placed upon probation pursuant to §62-12-9.

21 (e) The sentencing court may, based upon defendant's ability to pay, impose a supervision 22 fee to offset the cost of supervision. The fee may not exceed $50 per month. The fee may be 23 modified periodically based upon the defendant's ability to pay.

24 (f) Modification of conditions or revocation. -- The court may:

25 (1) Terminate a term of supervised release and discharge the defendant released at any 26 time after the expiration of two years of supervised release, pursuant to the provisions of the West
27 Virginia Rules of Criminal Procedure relating to the modification of probation, if it is satisfied that 28 this action is warranted by the conduct of the defendant released and the interests of justice;

29 (2) Extend a period of supervised release if less than the maximum authorized period was 30 previously imposed or modify, reduce, or enlarge the conditions of supervised release, at any time 31 prior to the expiration or termination of the term of supervised release, consistent with the 32 provisions of the West Virginia Rules of Criminal Procedure relating to the modification of 33 probation and the provisions applicable to the initial setting of the terms and conditions of post-
34 release supervision;

35 (3) Revoke a term of supervised release and require the defendant to serve in prison all or 36 part of the term of supervised release without credit for time previously served on supervised 37 release if the court, pursuant to the West Virginia Rules of Criminal Procedure applicable to 38 revocation of probation, finds by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant violated a 39 condition of supervised release, except that a defendant whose term is revoked under this

40 subdivision may not be required to serve more than the period of supervised release;
41 (4) Order the defendant to remain at his or her place of residence during nonworking hours
42 and, if the court so directs, to have compliance monitored by telephone or electronic signaling 43 devices, except that an order under this paragraph may be imposed only as an alternative to 44 incarceration.

45 (g) Written statement of conditions. -- The court shall direct that the probation officer
46 provide the defendant with a written statement at the defendant's sentencing hearing that sets 47 forth all the conditions to which the term of supervised release is subject and that it is sufficiently 48 clear and specific to serve as a guide for the defendant's conduct and for such supervision as is 49 required.

50 (h) Supervised release following revocation. -- When a term of supervised release is 51 revoked and the defendant is required to serve a term of imprisonment that is less than the 52 maximum term of supervised release authorized under subsection (a) of this section, the court 53 may include a requirement that the defendant be placed on a term of supervised release after 54 imprisonment. The length of the term of supervised release may not exceed the term of supervised 55 release authorized by this section less any term of imprisonment that was imposed upon 56 revocation of supervised release.

57 (i) Delayed revocation. -- The power of the court, to revoke a term of supervised release for 58 violation of a condition of supervised release and to order the defendant to serve a term of 59 imprisonment and, subject to the limitations in subsection (i) of this section, a further term of 60 supervised release extends beyond the expiration of the term of supervised release for any period 61 necessary for the adjudication of matters arising before its expiration if, before its expiration, a 62 warrant or summons has been issued on the basis of an allegation of such a violation.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to require extended supervision for certain drug offenders.
