19	state, federal or international, has the right to question, alter, or invalidate a parental decision
20	regarding any right enumerated herein. The decisions of a parent or legal guardian regarding their
21	minor child or children are recognized as final, unalterable, and irrevocable at any level of
22	government unless statutorily authorized and only to the extent such decision is shown by clear
23	and convincing evidence to pose serious and imminent harm to the child.
24	(f) (1) No institution, agency, representative, or employee of any unit of the government
25	may curtail any right of a parent regarding the child of a parent unless by order of a Court and then
26	limited only to the extent necessary to protect a child from imminent harm or danger.
27	(2) No institution, agency, representative, or employee of any unit or instrumentality of
28	government, whether local, state or federal, may expose or make available to a minor child any
29	obscene, indecent, or profane literature, graphic materials, audio/video recordings, internet
30	materials, or sexually explicit demonstrations or performances in accordance with Federal Laws
31	set forth in 18 U.S. Code Chapter 71.
32	(g) No institution, agency, representative, or employee of any unit or instrumentality of
33	government, whether local, state or federal, may permit or allow the exposure of a member of the
34	opposite biological sex's nudity, including any sexual organ, to a minor in a public place, including
35	but not limited to any place on the premises of a public education institution, a bathroom, a shower
36	room, a locker room or a changing room.
37	(h) A parent may bring suit against the state, any agency or locality thereof, any
38	government official, or any person acting under color of law based on any violation of this article
39	and seek appropriate relief, including, but not limited to, injunctive relief, monetary damages,
40	reasonable attorneys' fees, and court costs. A parent may also raise this article as a defense
41	before any court or administrative tribunal.
42	(i) If a child has no affirmative right of access to a particular medical procedure or service,
43	then nothing in this article may be construed to grant the child's parent an affirmative right of
44	access to the procedure or service on the child's behalf.
