By Delegates Pritt, Clay, T. Clark, and Brooks

[Introduced February 17, 2025; referred to the Committee on the Judiciary then Finance]

1 A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding a new section,
2 designated §5-5-4c, relating to pay equity salary adjustments for employees of the Division
3 of Corrections and Rehabilitation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 5. SALARY INCREASE FOR STATE EMPLOYEES.

§5-5-4c. Division of Corrections and Rehabilitation pay equity salary adjustment.

1 (a) The Legislature hereby finds that the Division of Corrections and Rehabilitation, have 2 extreme difficulty with recruiting and retaining employees of all types.

3 (b) The Legislature hereby directs that a pay equity salary adjustment and increase be 4 provided to all employees of the Division of Corrections and Rehabilitation regardless of where the 5 employee reports to work.

6 (c)(1) On July 1, 2025, the Legislature hereby directs that a pay equity salary adjustment
7 and increase be provided to full-time equivalent employees of the Division of Corrections and 8 Rehabilitation that are employed as non-uniform administrative staff. This salary adjustment shall 9 be for a total of three percent of each such employee's salary as of the effective date of this 10 subdivision for those employees who have accumulated three years or more of continuous 11 employment.

12 (2) On or after July 1, 2025, individuals who have accumulated less than three years of 13 continuous employment and individuals becoming employed as full-time equivalent employees of 14 the Division of Corrections and Rehabilitation that are employed as non-uniform administrative 15 staff shall receive a salary adjustment for a total of three percent of each such employee's salary 16 after each such individual accumulates three years of continuous service, which will be calculated 17 based upon the employee's salary at the date he or she accumulated three years of continuous 18 service.

19 (d) Funding for the pay rates for employees of the Division of Corrections and 20 Rehabilitation shall be provided from the general revenue appropriations to the Division of 21 Corrections and Rehabilitation, respectively.

22 (e) For purposes of the reenactment of this section during the regular session of the 23 Legislature in 2025, the salary adjustments set forth in subsection (c) of this section for the 24 applicable full-time equivalent employees of the Division of Corrections and Rehabilitation that are 25 employed as non-uniform administrative staff shall be paid from the general revenue 26 appropriations to the Division of Corrections and Rehabilitation.

27 (f) If any provision of this section conflicts with any rule, policy, or provision of this code, this 28 section shall control. Due to the limits of funding, the implementation of the pay rates and 29 employment requirements shall not be subject to the provisions of §6C-2-1 et seq. of this code.
30 The provisions of this section are rehabilitative in nature and it is the specific intent of the 31 Legislature that no private cause of action, either express or implied, shall arise pursuant to the 32 provisions or implementation of this section.

33 (g) If, following this pay raise, the employee will make more than the maximum allowable 34 by the Division of Personnel for the pay grade, this salary increase shall still take effect, and that 35 employee shall make more than the pay grade maximum.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to provide a pay equity salary adjustment and increase be provided to all employees of the Division of Corrections and Rehabilitation.
