3	of this article July 1, 2025. For purposes of this section, a nonvested property interest or a power of
4	appointment created by the exercise of a power of appointment is created when the power is
5	irrevocably exercised or when a revocable exercise becomes irrevocable.

- (b) This article also applies to a power of appointment that was created before July 1, 2025, but only to the extent that it remains unexercised on July 1, 2025.
- (b)(c) If a nonvested property interest or a power of appointment was created before the effective date of this article and is determined in a judicial proceeding, commenced on or after the effective date of this article, to violate this state's rule against perpetuities as that rule existed before the effective date of this article, a court upon the petition of an interested person may reform the disposition in the manner that most closely approximates the transferor's manifested plan of distribution and is within the limits of the rule against perpetuities applicable when the nonvested property interest or power of appointment was created.

§36-1A-6. Short title.

This article may be cited as the "West Virginia Uniform Statutory Rule Against Perpetuities."

§36-1A-7. Uniformity of application and construction.

- (a) With respect to any matter relating to the validity of an interest within the rule against perpetuities, unless a contrary intent appears in the instrument, as a rule of construction it shall be presumed that the transferor of the interest intended that the interest be valid.
- (b) The provisions of this article shall be applied and construed to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law with respect to the subject of this article among states enacting it.
