Introduced

House Bill 2747

By Delegates Hornby, Holstein, Funkhouser, J.

Cannon, and Horst

[Introduced February 21, 2025; referred to the Committee on the Judiciary]

1 A BILL to amend and reenact §17C-5-2 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating 2 to correcting the issue of a fleeing DUI not being considered a DUI offense.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 5. SERIOUS TRAFFIC OFFENSES.

§17C-5-2. Driving under influence of alcohol, controlled substances, or drugs; penalties.

1 (a) Definitions. —

2 (1) "Impaired state" means a person:

3 (A) Is under the influence of alcohol;

4 (B) Is under the influence of any controlled substance;

5 (C) Is under the influence of any other drug or inhalant substance;

6 (D) Is under the combined influence of alcohol and any controlled substance or any other 7 drug; or

8 (E) Has an alcohol concentration in his or her blood of eight hundredths of one percent or 9 more, by weight.

10 (2) "Bodily injury" means injury that causes substantial physical pain, illness, or any 11 impairment of physical condition.

12 (3) "Controlled substance" has the meaning provided in §60A-1-101 of this code.

13 (4) "Serious bodily injury" means bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death, that 14 causes serious or prolonged disfigurement, prolonged impairment of health, or prolonged loss or 15 impairment of the function of any bodily organ.

16 (5) "Test and lock program" means the Motor Vehicle Test and Lock Program, established 17 in §17C-5A-3a and administered by the Division of Motor Vehicles.

18 (b) Any person who drives a vehicle in this state while he or she is in an impaired state, and 19 such impaired state proximately causes the death of any person, including an embryo or fetus as 20 defined in §61-2-30 of this code, is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be 21 imprisoned in a state correctional facility for not less than three nor more than 15 years and shall

22 be fined not less than $1,000 nor more than $3,000, and shall have his or her license to operate a 23 motor vehicle revoked by the Commissioner of the Division of Motor Vehicles for a period of 10 24 years or for a period of time conditioned on participation in the test and lock program in 25 accordance with §17C-5A-3a of this code: Provided, That any death charged under this 26 subsection must occur within one year of the offense: Provided, however, That if the person has 27 previously been convicted under this section, the person shall have his or her license to operate a
28 motor vehicle revoked by the Commissioner of the Division of Motor Vehicles for life or for a period
29 of time conditioned on participation in the test and lock program in accordance with §17C-5A-3a of 30 this code.

31 (c) Any person who drives a vehicle in this state while he or she is in an impaired state, and 32 such impaired state proximately causes serious bodily injury to any person, including an embryo or 33 fetus as defined in §61-2-30 of this code, other than himself or herself, is guilty of a felony and,
34 upon conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned in a state correctional facility for not less than two nor 35 more than 10 years and shall be fined not less than $1,000 nor more than $3,000, and shall have 36 his or her license to operate a motor vehicle revoked by the Commissioner of the Division of Motor 37 Vehicles for a period of five years or for a period of time conditioned on participation in the test and 38 lock program in accordance with §17C-5A-3a of this code: Provided, That if the person has 39 previously been convicted under this section, the person shall have his or her license to operate a
40 motor vehicle revoked by the Commissioner of the Division of Motor Vehicles for life or for a period
41 of time conditioned on participation in the test and lock program in accordance with §17C-5A-3a of 42 this code.

43 (d) Any person who drives a vehicle in this state while he or she is in an impaired state, and 44 such impaired state proximately causes a bodily injury to any person other than himself or herself, 45 is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be confined in jail for not less than 46 one day nor more than one year and shall be fined not less than $200 nor more than $1,000, and 47 shall have his or her license to operate a motor vehicle revoked by the Commissioner of the 48 Division of Motor Vehicles for a period of two years or for a period of time conditioned on 49 participation in the test and lock program in accordance with §17C-5A-3a of this code: Provided, 50 That if the person has previously been convicted under this section, the person shall have his or 51 her license to operate a motor vehicle revoked by the Commissioner of the Division of Motor 52 Vehicles for life or for a period of time conditioned on participation in the test and lock program in 53 accordance with §17C-5A-3a of this code. Any jail term imposed pursuant to this subsection shall 54 include actual confinement of not less than 24 hours: Provided, however, That a person sentenced 55 pursuant to this subsection shall receive credit for any period of actual confinement he or she 56 served upon arrest for the subject offense.

57 (e) Any person who drives a vehicle on any public highway or private road in this state: (1) 58 while he or she is in an impaired state; or (2) while he or she is in an impaired state but has an 59 alcohol concentration in his or her blood of less than fifteen hundredths of one percent, by weight, 60 is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, may be confined in jail for up to six 61 months and shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500, and shall have his or her license
62 to operate a motor vehicle revoked by the Commissioner of the Division of Motor Vehicles for a
63 period of six months or for a period of time conditioned on participation in the test and lock program
64 in accordance with §17C-5A-3a of this code: Provided, That a person sentenced pursuant to this 65 subsection shall receive credit for any period of actual confinement he or she served upon arrest 66 for the subject offense.

67 (f) Any person who drives a vehicle on any public highway or private road in this state while 68 he or she has an alcohol concentration in his or her blood of fifteen hundredths of one percent or 69 more, by weight, is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be confined in jail 70 for not less than two days nor more than six months, which jail term is to include actual 71 confinement of not less than 24 hours, and shall be fined not less than $200 nor more than $1,000, 72 and shall have his or her license to operate a motor vehicle revoked by the Commissioner of the 73 Division of Motor Vehicles for a period of one year or for a period of time conditioned on

74 participation in the test and lock program in accordance with §17C-5A-3a of this code. A person 75 sentenced pursuant to this subsection shall receive credit for any period of actual confinement he 76 or she served upon arrest for the subject offense.

77 (g) Any person who, being a habitual user of narcotic drugs or amphetamines, or any 78 derivative thereof, drives a vehicle on any public highway or private road in this state is guilty of a 79 misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be confined in jail for not less than one day nor 80 more than six months, which jail term is to include actual confinement of not less than 24 hours, 81 and shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500, and shall have his or her license to 82 operate a motor vehicle revoked by the Commissioner of the Division of Motor Vehicles for a 83 period of six months. A person sentenced pursuant to this subsection shall receive credit for any 84 period of actual confinement he or she served upon arrest for the subject offense.

85 (h) Any person who knowingly permits his or her vehicle to be driven on any public highway 86 or private road in this state by any other person who is in an impaired state is guilty of a 87 misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be confined in jail for not more than six months 88 and shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500, and shall have his or her license to 89 operate a motor vehicle revoked by the Commissioner of the Division of Motor Vehicles for a
90 period of six months or for a period of time conditioned on participation in the test and lock program 91 in accordance with §17C-5A-3a of this code.

92 (i) Any person who knowingly permits his or her vehicle to be driven on any public highway 93 or private road in this state by any other person who is a habitual user of narcotic drugs or 94 amphetamines, or any derivative thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, 95 shall be confined in jail for not more than six months and shall be fined not less than $100 nor more 96 than $500, and shall have his or her license to operate a motor vehicle revoked by the 97 Commissioner of the Division of Motor Vehicles for a period of six months.

98 (j) (1) Any person under the age of 21 years who drives a vehicle on any public highway or 99 private road in this state while he or she has an alcohol concentration in his or her blood of two hundredths of one percent or more, by weight, but less than eight hundredths of one percent, by weight, for a first offense under this subsection is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $100, and have his or her license to operate a motor vehicle suspended by the Commissioner of the Division of Motor Vehicles for a period of 60 days or for a period of time conditioned on participation in the test and lock program in accordance with §17C-5A-3a of this code. For a second or subsequent offense under this subsection, the person is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be confined in jail for 24 hours and shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500, and shall have his or her license to operate a motor vehicle revoked by the Commissioner of the Division of Motor Vehicles for a period of one year or until the person's 21st birthday, whichever period is longer, or for a period of time conditioned on participation in the test and lock program in accordance with §17C-5A-3a of this code. A person who is charged with a first offense under the provisions of this subsection may move for a continuance of the proceedings, from time to time, to allow the person to participate in the test and lock program as provided in §17C-5A-3a of this code. Upon successful completion of the program, the court shall dismiss the charge against the person and expunge the person's record as it relates to the alleged offense. In the event the person fails to successfully complete the program, the court shall proceed to an adjudication of the alleged offense. A motion for a continuance under this subsection may not be construed as an admission or be used as evidence.

(2) (A) Notwithstanding subdivision (1) of this subsection, a person shall have his or her license to operate a motor vehicle suspended or revoked for a minimum period of one year or for a period of time conditioned on participation in the test and lock program in accordance with §17C-5A-3a of this code, if the person:

(i) Has previously been convicted under this subsection and is subsequently convicted of an offense under another subsection of this section; or

(ii) Is convicted under this subsection and has previously been convicted of an offense

126 under another subsection of this section.

127 (B) Nothing in this subdivision permits a shorter period of license revocation, license 128 suspension, or participation in the test and lock program than is mandatory for the specific offense 129 for which the person is convicted.

130 (3) A person arrested and charged with an offense under the provisions of this subsection 131 or subsection (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), or (i) of this section may not also be charged with an 132 offense under this subsection arising out of the same transaction or occurrence.

133 (k) Any person who drives a vehicle on any public highway or private road in this state 134 while he or she is in an impaired state and has within the vehicle one or more other persons who 135 are unemancipated minors who have not yet reached their 16th birthday is guilty of a 136 misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be confined in jail for not less than two days nor 137 more than 12 months, and shall be fined not less than $200 nor more than $1,000, and shall have 138 his or her license to operate a motor vehicle revoked by the Commissioner of the Division of Motor 139 Vehicles for a period of one year or for a period of time conditioned on participation in the test and 140 lock program in accordance with §17C-5A-3a of this code: Provided, That such jail term shall 141 include actual confinement of not less than 48 hours: Provided, however, That a person sentenced 142 pursuant to this subsection shall receive credit for any period of actual confinement he or she 143 served upon arrest for the subject offense.

144 (l) A person convicted of an offense under this section, who has previously been convicted 145 of any offense under this section on one occasion, is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction 146 thereof, shall be confined in jail for not less than six months nor more than one year, may be fined 147 not less than $1,000 nor more than $3,000, and shall have his or her license to operate a motor 148 vehicle revoked by the Commissioner of the Division of Motor Vehicles for 10 years or for a period 149 of time conditioned on participation in the test and lock program in accordance with §17C-5A-3a of 150 this code: Provided, That if the second conviction is for an offense as described in subsections (b), 151 (c), or (d) of this section and the subsection creating the offense requires a period of incarceration, period of license revocation, or fine that is greater than what is required for a conviction under this subsection, the greater period of incarceration, period of revocation, or fine shall be imposed: Provided, however, That this section does not apply to a second conviction that is subject to a period of license revocation under subsection (j) of this section.

(m) A person convicted of an offense under this section, who has previously been convicted of any offense under this section on two or more occasions, is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned in a state correctional facility for not less than two nor more than five years, shall have his or her license to operate a motor vehicle revoked by the Commissioner of the Division of Motor Vehicles for life or for a period of time conditioned on participation in the test and lock program in accordance with §17C-5A-3a of this code, and the court may, in its discretion, impose a fine of not less than $3,000 nor more than $5,000: Provided, That if the third or subsequent conviction is for an offense as described in subsections (b), (c), or (d) of this section and the subsection creating the offense requires a period of incarceration, period of license revocation, or fine that is greater than what is required for a conviction under this subsection, the greater period of incarceration, period of revocation, and fine shall be imposed: Provided, however, That this section does not apply to a third or subsequent conviction that is subject to a period of license revocation under subsection (j) of this section.

(n) For purposes of subsections (l) and (m) of this section relating to second, third, and subsequent offenses, the following events shall be regarded as offenses and convictions under this section:

(1) Any conviction under the provisions of subsection (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), or (i) of this section, or under a prior enactment of this section, for an offense which occurred within the 10-year period immediately preceding the date of arrest in the current proceeding;

(2) Any conviction under a municipal ordinance of this state or any other state or a statute of the United States or of any other state of an offense which has the same elements as an offense described in subsection (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), or (i) of this section, which offense occurred

178 within the 10-year period immediately preceding the date of arrest in the current proceeding; and

179 (3) Any period of conditional probation imposed pursuant to §17C-5-2b of this code for 180 violation of subsection (e) of this section, which violation occurred within the 10-year period 181 immediately preceding the date of arrest in the current proceeding.

182 (o) A person may be charged in a warrant, indictment, or information for a second or 183 subsequent offense, as described in subsection (j), (l), or (m) of this section, if the person has been 184 previously arrested for, or charged with, a violation of this section which is alleged to have 185 occurred within the applicable time period for prior offenses, notwithstanding the fact that there 186 has not been a final adjudication of the charges for the alleged previous offense. In that case, the 187 warrant or indictment or information must set forth the date, location, and particulars of the 188 previous offense or offenses. No person may be convicted of a second or subsequent offense 189 under this section unless the conviction for the previous offense has become final, or the person 190 has previously had a period of conditional probation imposed pursuant to §17C-5-2b of this code.

191 (p) The fact that any person charged with a violation of subsection (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), or (g) 192 of this section, or any person permitted to drive as described under subsection (h) or (i) of this 193 section, is or has been legally entitled to use alcohol, a controlled substance, or a drug does not 194 constitute a defense against any charge of violating subsection (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), or (i) of 195 this section.

196 (q) The sentences provided in this section upon conviction for a violation of this article are 197 mandatory and are not subject to suspension or probation: Provided, That the court may apply the 198 provisions of §62-11A-1 et seq. of this code to a person sentenced or committed to a term of one 199 year or less for a first offense under this section: Provided, however, That the court may impose a 200 term of conditional probation pursuant to §17C-5-2b of this code to persons adjudicated 201 thereunder. An order for home detention by the court pursuant to the provisions of §62-11B-1 et 202 seq. of this code may be used as an alternative sentence to any period of incarceration required by 203 this section for a first or subsequent offense: Provided further, That for any period of home

204 incarceration ordered for a person convicted of a second offense under this section, electronic 205 monitoring shall be required for no fewer than five days of the total period of home confinement 206 ordered and the offender may not leave home for those five days notwithstanding the provisions of 207 §62-11B-5 of this code: And provided further, That for any period of home incarceration ordered for 208 a person convicted of a third or subsequent violation of this section, electronic monitoring shall be 209 included for no fewer than 10 days of the total period of home confinement ordered and the 210 offender may not leave home for those 10 days notwithstanding §62-11B-5 of this code.

211 (r) A person whose license to operate a motor vehicle has been revoked or suspended by 212 the Commissioner of the Division of Motor Vehicles pursuant to this section must complete a 213 comprehensive safety and treatment program as set forth in §17C-5A-3 of this code before his or 214 her license to operate a motor vehicle can be reinstated and his or her driving privileges restored.

215 (s) For any offense for which an alternative revocation period is permitted conditioned upon 216 participation in the test and lock program, an alternative sentence may not be imposed without the 217 consent of the driver.

218 (t) Upon entering the order of conviction for an offense under this section, or the imposition 219 of conditional probation as provided in §17C-5-2b of this code, the clerk of the court shall 220 immediately transmit the order to the Commissioner of the Division of Motor Vehicles.

221 (u) The amendments made to this section during the 2020 regular session of the 222 Legislature shall become effective on July 1, 2020.

223 (v) "Fleeing DUI" as referenced in §17C-5-2 of this code may be used a predicate offense
224 for DUI, second offense DUI, or third offense DUI. The Division of Motor Vehicles may promulgate 225 rules to effectuate the provisions of this subsection.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill relates to correct the issue of a fleeing DUI not being considered a DUI offense.
