48 format for volunteer fire fighters and emergency medical services first responders; and

49 ~~(16)~~ (17) Take any other action involving or relating to internal management not otherwise 50 prohibited by law.

51 (b) The secretaries of the departments shall engage in a comprehensive review of the 52 practices, policies, and operations of the agencies and boards within their departments to 53 determine the feasibility of cost reductions and increased efficiency which may be achieved 54 therein, including, but not limited to, the following:

55 (1) The elimination, reduction, and restriction of the state's vehicle or other transportation 56 fleet;

57 (2) The elimination, reduction, and restriction of state government publications, including 58 annual reports, informational materials, and promotional materials;

59 (3) The termination or rectification of terms contained in lease agreements between the 60 state and private sector for offices, equipment, and services;

61 (4) The adoption of appropriate systems for accounting, including consideration of an 62 accrual basis financial accounting and reporting system;

63 (5) The adoption of revised procurement practices to facilitate cost-effective purchasing 64 procedures, including consideration of means by which domestic businesses may be assisted to 65 compete for state government purchases; and

66 (6) The computerization of the functions of the state agencies and boards.

67 (c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (a) and (b) of this section, none of the 68 powers granted to the secretaries shall may be exercised by the secretary if to do so would violate 69 or be inconsistent with the provisions of any federal law or regulation, any federal-state program or 70 federally delegated program or jeopardize the approval, existence, or funding of any program.

71 (d) The layoff and recall rights of employees within the classified service of the state as

72 provided in §29-6-10(5) and §29-6-10(6) of this code shall be limited to the organizational unit 73 within the agency or board and within the occupational group established by the classification and 74 compensation plan for the classified service of the agency or board in which the employee was 75 employed prior to the agency or board's transfer or incorporation into the department: Provided, 76 That the employee shall possess the qualifications established for the job class. The duration of 77 recall rights provided in this subsection shall be limited to two years or the length of tenure, 78 whichever is less. Except as provided in this subsection, nothing contained in this section shall be 79 construed to abridge the rights of employees within the classified service of the state as provided 80 in §29-6-10 and §29-6-10a of this code.

81 (e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this code to the contrary, the secretary of each 82 department shall cooperate with the State Resiliency Office to the fullest extent practicable to 83 assist that office in fulfilling its duties.
