[Introduced February 27, 2025; referred to the Committee on Government Organization]

1 A BILL to amend and reenact §7-11-1 and §7-11-3, of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as 2 amended, both relating to requiring county parks and recreation commissions to be 3 established.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 11. COUNTY PARKS AND RECREATION COMMISSIONS.

§7-11-1. County courts authorized to create a county parks and recreation commission.

1 The county court of any county is hereby authorized and empowered, by order entered of 2 record, to create a county parks and recreation commission for the purpose of establishing,
 3 improving, developing, administering, operating and maintaining a county public parks and 4 recreation system or public recreational facilities, unless demonstrated to be fiscally unable or a 5 county has already established a parks and recreation board or commission that has been set up
 6 either by the county commission, through legislative action, or through a charitable non-profit 7 organization.

§7-11-3. Number of members; quorum; qualifications; appointment; term; disqualifications.

1 The commission shall consist of ~~eleven members~~, an odd number of members based on 2 the population of each county and shall be determined by the county commission, a majority of 3 whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Each member of said commission
 4 shall be a bona fide resident of the county and shall own real estate within such county. The term of 5 the commission members shall be for three years and until their successors have been appointed 6 and have qualified: Provided, That the county court in appointing the members of the first 7 commission shall appoint ~~three members for a term of one year; four members for a term of two~~ 8 ~~years and four members for a term of three years~~ a certain number of members for a term of one
 9 year, two years, and three years. The order of the county court shall fix the date on which the term
 10 of such commission members shall begin. The members of any board of park and recreation 11 commissioners heretofore created under the former provisions of this article shall continue in

12 office as members of the parks and recreation commission of such county until their terms expire
13 and their successors have been appointed and have qualified. Any member of the commission 14 who shall cease to be a bona fide resident of the county or a freeholder thereof, shall thereby be 15 disqualified as a member of said commission and his or her office shall become vacant. When a 16 vacancy occurs on said commission by reason of death, resignation, change of residence from the 17 county, ~~failure to remain a freeholder of the county,~~ or expiration of term, the county court shall 18 appoint a successor or successors to fill out the unexpired term of the member of the commission 19 whose term has been vacated.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to authorize county courts to establish county parks and recreation commissions.
