1 A BILL to amend and reenact §60-6-9 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating to 2 expanding the offense of public intoxication to persons intoxicated by controlled 3 substances.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 6. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

§60-6-9. Intoxication ~~or drinking~~ by use of alcoholic liquor or controlled substances in public places; illegal possession of alcoholic liquor; arrests by sheriffs or their deputies for violation in their presence; penalties.

1 (a) A person may not:

2 (1) Appear in a public place in an intoxicated condition; Provided, That "intoxicated" as 3 used herein includes intoxication from alcoholic liquor or any controlled substance as provided in 4 §60A-2-201 et seq. and §60A-4-401 et seq. of this code;

5 (2) Drink alcoholic liquor in a public place;

6 (3) Tender a drink of alcoholic liquor to another person in a public place;

7 (4) Operate a business without a license issued under §60-1-1 et seq. of this code which 8 knowingly facilitates the consumption of alcoholic liquors in a public place by providing for on-site
9 items such as cups, glasses, ice, and nonalcoholic beverages used to mix with alcoholic liquors,
10 refrigeration, or on-site storage of alcoholic liquors in a lounge area or space for persons to gather, 11 perhaps offering musical entertainment, exotic dancing, or other such nude entertainment, or 12 other similar activity or entertainment. Such business may be commonly known as a "bring your 13 own bottle", "bring your own booze", or "BYOB" establishments;

14 (5) Possess alcoholic liquor in the amount in excess of 10 gallons, in containers not 15 bearing stamps or seals of the commissioner, without having first obtained written authority from 16 the commissioner therefor; or

17 (6) Possess any alcoholic liquor which was manufactured or acquired in violation of the 18 provisions of this chapter.

19 (b) Any law-enforcement officer may arrest without a warrant and take the following actions 20 against a person who, in his or her presence, violates subdivision (1), subsection (a) of this 21 section: (1) If there is some nonintoxicated person who will accept responsibility for the intoxicated
22 person, the officer, within his/her discretion, may issue the intoxicated person a citation specifying 23 a date for appearance before a judicial officer and release him or her to the custody of the 24 individual accepting responsibility: Provided, That the issuance of a citation shall be used 25 whenever feasible; (2) if it does not impose an undue burden on the officer, he or she may, after 26 issuance of a citation, transport the individual to the individual's present residence, or arrange for 27 the transportation; (3) if the individual is incapacitated or the alternatives provided in subdivisions 28 (1) and (2) of this subsection are not possible, the officer shall transport or arrange for 29 transportation to the appropriate judicial officer; or (4) if the individual is incapacitated and, in the 30 law-enforcement officer's judgment, is in need of acute medical attention, that officer shall arrange 31 for transportation by ambulance or otherwise to a hospital emergency room. The officer shall 32 accompany the individual until he or she is discharged from the emergency room or admitted to 33 the hospital. If the individual is released from the emergency room, the officer may proceed as 34 described in subdivisions (1), (2), and (3) of this subsection. If the individual is admitted to the 35 hospital, the officer shall issue a citation to the individual specifying a date for appearance before a 36 judicial officer.

37 (c) Upon presentment before the proper judicial officer, the law-enforcement officer serves 38 as the chief complaining witness. The judicial officer shall determine if there is probative evidence 39 that the individual may be guilty of the charge of public intoxication. If such evidence is not 40 presented, the charge shall be dismissed and the individual released. If sufficient evidence is 41 presented, the judicial officer shall issue a warrant and establish bail or issue a summons to the 42 individual. Once a warrant or summons has been issued, the following actions may be taken:

43 (1) If the individual is no longer incapacitated, he or she may be released;

44 (2) If the individual is still incapacitated but a nonintoxicated person is available to accept 45 responsibility for him or her, he or she may be released to the responsible person; or

46 (3) If the individual is still incapacitated and no responsible person is available, the judicial 47 officer shall proceed under §27-5-1 et seq. and §27-6A-1 et seq. of this code.

48 (d) Any law-enforcement officer may arrest and hold in custody, without a warrant, until 49 complaint may be made before a judicial officer and a warrant or summons issued, any person
50 who in the presence of the law-enforcement officer violates any one or more of subdivisions (1)
51 through (6), subsection (a) of this section: Provided, That the law-enforcement officer may use 52 reasonable force to prevent harm to himself or herself, the individual arrested, or others in carrying 53 out the provisions of this section.

54 (e) Any person who violates subdivision (1), subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a 55 misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced by a judicial officer in accordance 56 with the following options:
