By Delegates Hornbuckle, Hamilton, Garcia, and

Lewis

[Introduced March 17, 2025; referred to the Committee on the Judiciary]

- 1 A BILL to amend and reenact §61-2-15a of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating
2 to increasing the fines for conviction of assault or battery of athletic officials.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 2. CRIMES AGAINST THE PERSON.

§61-2-15a. Assault, battery on athletic officials; penalties.

- 1 (a) If any person commits an assault, as defined in §61-2-9(b), to the person of an athletic
2 official during the time the official is acting as an athletic official, the offender is guilty of a
3 misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not ~~more~~ less than $500 nor more than 4 $1,000, or confined in jail not more than six months, or both fined and confined.

- 5 (b) If any person commits a battery, as defined in §61-2-9(c), against an athletic official
6 during the time the official is acting as an athletic official, the offender is guilty of a misdemeanor
7 and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not ~~more~~ less than $1,000 nor more than $3,000, or 8 confined in jail not more than twelve months, or both fined and confined.

- 9 (c) For the purpose of this section, "athletic official" means a person at a sports event who 10 enforces the rules of that event, such as an umpire or referee, or a person who supervises the 11 participants, such as a coach.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to increase the penalties for persons convicted of assault or battery upon athletic officials: the Safe Play Act.
