MEDIA

ACT.

§61-3F-1.

Definitions.

1 (a) As used in this section, the following terms have the meanings given.

2 (b) "Deep fake" means any visual media created, altered, or otherwise manipulated in a
3 manner that would falsely appear to a reasonable observer to be an authentic record of a natural
4 person's speech, conduct, or likeness;

5 (1) That is so realistic that a reasonable person would believe it depicts speech or conduct
6 of an individual who did not in fact engage in such speech or conduct; and

7 (2) The production of which was substantially dependent upon technical means, rather 8 than the ability of another individual to physically or verbally impersonate such individual.

9 (c) "Depicted individual" means an individual in a deep fake who appears to be engaging in 10 speech or conduct in which the individual did not engage.

11 (d) "Distribute" means to publish or disseminate, including but not limited to: advertising,
12 exhibiting, exchanging, promoting, or selling deep fake material.

13 (e) "Natural person" means a human being with legal personality as distinguished from a
14 person created by digital means or by operation of law.

15 (f) "Non-consensual" means without the voluntary agreement of the natural person whose 16 face is involved.

17 (g) "Sexual conduct" means actual or simulated sexual intercourse, outercourse,
18 masturbation, bestiality, or sexual sadism.

§61-3F-2. Prohibitions.

1 (a) A person commits the unlawful dissemination or sale of images of another if the person
2 intentionally or knowingly distributes a deep fake with the face of a natural person:

3 (1) Depicting that person engaging in sexual conduct that the actual person did not
4 actually engage in;

5 (2) With intent to coerce, harass, or intimidate, or to damage the reputation of the natural
6 person depicted; and

7 (3) Where the distributor knows or has reason to know that the distribution was not
8 consented to by the natural person whose face is depicted in the deep fake.

9 (b) Nothing in this article shall be construed to impose liability on an interactive computer
10 service, as defined in 47 U.S.C. § 230(f), for information provided by another information content
11 provider.

12 (c) The provisions of this article shall not preclude prosecution under any other statute.

§61-3F-3. Construction; safe harbor.

1 (a) "Deep fake" shall not be interpreted to include any constitutionally protected speech,
2 including works of political, artistic, or newsworthy value, including commentary, criticism, satire,
3 or parody.

4 (b) It shall not be a violation of this article to publish digitally manipulated media that
5 includes a clear disclosure that would cause a reasonable person to understand that the visual
6 media is not a record of a real event.

§61-3F-4. Severability.

1 If any provision of this article or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is
2 held unconstitutional or otherwise invalid, the remaining provisions of this article and the 3 application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

§61-3F-5.Penalty.

1 A person convicted of violating §61-3F-2 may be sentenced as follows:

7 fined and confined; or

8 (3) In other cases, to imprisonment for not more than 90 days or to payment of a fine of not

9 more than $1,000, or both fined and confined.

§61-3F-6.Injunctive*relief.
