SHAMBLIN, AND HILLENBRAND

[Passed March 13, 2026; in effect 90 days from passage (June 11, 2026)]

1 AN ACT to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new article,
2 designated §15-3G-1, §15-3G-2, §15-3G-3, §15-3G4, §15-3G-5, and §15-3G-6, all related
3 to the Blue Envelope Program; requiring the State Police to establish the Blue Envelope
4 Program by January 1, 2027; stating purpose of program; specifying requirements for 5 envelopes; requiring material distribution to persons with autism spectrum disorder, 6 dementia, or intellectual and developmental disabilities; limiting collection and storage of 7 information relating to a person's identity; setting forth that State Police verification of 8 information on envelopes is not required; providing that information on envelopes is not
9 warranted and does not create liability on the part of the state or any department, office, 10 or agency or of any officer, employee or agent thereof; and providing for immunity from 11 civil and criminal penalty with an exception.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

1 ARTICLE 3g. BLUE ENVELOPE PROGRAM.

2 §15-3G-1. Short title.

1 This article shall be known as and may be cited as the "Blue Envelope Program".

2 §15-3G-2. Establishment of Blue Envelope Program.

1 (a) By January 1, 2027, the State Police, in consultation with relevant stakeholders, shall
2 develop the Blue Envelope Program to promote better communication between law enforcement
3 and community members with a medical condition or disability that may benefit from additional 4 accommodations or awareness.

5 (b) The State Police shall develop and implement a program for the promotion, printing,
6 and distribution of envelopes for use by drivers diagnosed with autism spectrum disorder,
7 dementia, or any intellectual and developmental disability to provide to a law enforcement officer
8 for the purpose of easing communication during a traffic stop or upon such law enforcement
9 officer's arrival at the scene of a traffic accident.

§15-3G-3. Program materials.

1 (a) The Blue Envelope Program shall provide durable, blue-colored envelopes to persons
2 with autism spectrum disorder, dementia, or intellectual and developmental disabilities.

3 (b) The State Police shall make Blue Envelope Program materials available by mail and 4 at every State Police detachment and county motor vehicle office.

5 (c) The blue envelopes shall:

6 (1) Clearly state that the driver has been diagnosed with an autism spectrum disorder,
7 dementia, or intellectual and developmental disability and have printed directions for law
8 enforcement officers on best practices for interacting with such driver with traffic stop safety tips;

9 (2) Provide space for more information to be written about the driver's communication
10 needs and recommendations to the responding law enforcement officer with interaction
11 techniques to help promote enhanced communication and accommodation between law 12 enforcement and community members to effectively communicate, reduce stress, and ensure 13 safe interactions with law enforcement;

14 (3) Have a blank area where the driver, or their emergency contact, may add noteworthy 15 comments pertaining to the driver's individual needs or requested accommodations and where 16 the driver may write down the contact information of his or her emergency contact person;

17 (4) Be of sufficient size to fit into the glove compartment of a motor vehicle and be able to 18 hold a driver's license, vehicle registration card, vehicle insurance card, and other related 19 documents; and,

20 (5) Have printed directions instructing the driver to place his or her proof of vehicle
21 registration and insurance in the envelope and provide such envelope and his or her driver's
22 license to law enforcement if he or she is ever involved in a traffic stop or traffic accident.

23 §15-3G-4. Collection and storage of information.

1 The State Police shall not collect or store information identifying any person who has 2 requested or received such an envelope, except any information necessary to distribute such an

3 envelope to the requestor. No such information shall be stored in any form after the distribution
4 of such envelope is complete.

5 §15-3G-5. State Police verification of information not required; no warranty or 6 liability.

1 Nothing in this article requires the State Police to verify any information provided on the 2 envelope. Any action taken by a person, whether private citizen or public officer or employee, with 3 regard to any information provided on the envelope shall neither create a warranty of the reliability
4 or accuracy of the document nor create any liability on the part of the State of West Virginia or 5 any department, office, or agency or of any officer, employee or agent thereof.

6 §15-3G-6. Immunity from civil or criminal liability; exception.

1 No person or entity who in good faith follows and abides by the provisions of this article
2 may be liable for any civil or criminal penalty as the result of any act or omission in the furtherance
3 thereof unless it is alleged and proven that the information disclosed was false and disclosed with 4 the knowledge that the information was false.
