Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE	21.	PERSONAL	INCOME	TAX.

§11-21-24a. Tax credit for providing home or private schooling; exception.

1 (a) For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2026, a parent or legal guardian who is a
2 resident of West Virginia is entitled to receive a tax credit against his or her personal income tax
3 liability, otherwise due under this article, in an amount equivalent to what a student who is eligible

8 annually per taxpayer, regardless of the number of children schooled. The State Board of 9 Education may not create any additional regulations over the education of a child whose parent or 10 legal guardian receives a tax credit as authorized by this section.

11 (b) Those families who are eligible for the HOPE Scholarship do not qualify for this tax 12 credit.

13 (c) The State Tax Commissioner shall propose rules for legislative approval in accordance 14 with §29A-3-1 et seq. of this code for the administration of the provisions of this section, including 15 the reporting, filing, and application of claims for the tax credit provided under this section in a 16 manner which conforms to the rules for tax liability otherwise due.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to establish tax credits for parents and legal guardians whose children are in a home-schooling program or private school. The bill provides for an exception. Finally, the bill provides rule-making authority.
