(16) "Transactional data" means a sequence of information that documents an exchange, agreement, or transfer between an individual, commercial entity, or third party used for the purpose of satisfying a request or event. Transactional data includes records from mortgage, education, and employment entities.

§49A-1-102. Reasonable age verification methods.

(a) A commercial entity that knowingly and intentionally publishes or distributes sexual material harmful to minors on an Internet website, or application, or a third party that performs age verification under this article, shall in order to prove that an individual is 18 years of age or older require an individual to:

(1) Provide digital identification; or

(2) Comply with a commercial or governmental age verification system that verifies age

7 using:

8 (A) Government-issued identification which may be digital identification; or

9 (B) A commercially reasonable method that relies on public or private transactional data to 10 verify the age of an individual.

11 (b) A commercial entity, or third party, that performs the required age verification shall not
12 retain any identifying information of the individual after access has been granted to the material:
13 Provided, That nothing in this subsection shall be interpreted to require the deletion of data that 14 was otherwise held or obtained by a commercial entity, or third party, which the commercial entity,
15 or third party, held prior to the age verification or which is, or was, otherwise held by a commercial
16 entity, or third party, and was not gained or compiled as a part of the age verification process.

17 (c) A commercial entity, or third party, shall implement best practices to comply with the 18 current standards of the National Institute of Standards and Technology to limit the amount of 19 personally identifiable information transferred between entities while effectively accomplishing the 20 age verification requirements of this section.

21 (d) A commercial entity shall not publish or distribute obscene material, or material that 22 depicts, describes or promotes child pornography, on the Internet or via an application.

§49A-1-103. Applicability of article.

1 (a) This article does not apply to a website, video, report, or event of a bona fide news
2 gathering organization or public interest broadcast. This article may not be construed to affect the 3 rights of a news-gathering organization.

4 (b) An Internet service provider, or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, an
5 application distribution provider, web browser provider, or a cloud service provider may not be held
6 to have violated this article for providing access or connection to or from a website or other
7 information or content on the Internet or on a facility, system, or network, including transmission,
8 downloading, intermediate storage, access software, or other services to the extent the provider or 9 search engine is not responsible for the creation of the content that constitutes sexual material

10 harmful to minors.

§49A-1-104. Liability for failing to perform reasonable age verification for sexual material harmful to minors; damages; liability for retention of data; damages; creation of cause of action; and statute of limitations.

1 (a) A commercial entity that knowingly and intentionally publishes or distributes sexual
2 material harmful to minors on the internet from a website, or through an application, that contains a
3 substantial portion of such sexual material harmful to minors shall be held liable if the entity fails to
4 perform reasonable age verification methods to verify the age of an individual attempting to access
5 the material. A commercial entity that is found to have violated this section shall be liable to an
6 individual, as defined in subsection (d) of this section, for damages resulting from a minor child's 7 accessing the material, and the individual who brings an action under this subsection is entitled to:

8 (1) An award of reasonable attorney fees and court costs;

9 (2) $10,000 per each incident of violation; and

10 (3) Actual damages for financial, physical, and emotional harm incurred by the person
11 bringing the action, if the court determines that the harm is a direct consequence of the violation or
12 violations.

13 (b) A commercial entity that knowingly and intentionally publishes or distributes obscene
14 material, or material that depicts, describes or promotes child pornography, on the Internet may be 15 held liable to an individual for nominal damages, actual damages, court costs and reasonable
16 attorney fees as ordered by the court.

17 (c) A commercial entity that is found to have violated this section shall be liable to an 18 individual for damages resulting from retaining, using, sharing, or selling any identifying 19 information, or other data, of the individual after access has been granted to the individual. An 20 individual who brings an action under this subsection is entitled to:

21 (1) An award of reasonable attorney fees and court costs;

22 (2) $10,000 per each incident of violation; and

23           (3) Actual damages for financial, physical, and emotional harm incurred by the person
24 bringing the action, if the court determines that the harm is a direct consequence of the violation or
25 violations.

26           (d) The Legislature hereby expressly creates the cause of action described in subsection
27 (a) for a minor child, parent, guardian, or other person legally permitted to act on the minor child's 28 behalf, that are harmed by a violation of the requirements of §49A-1-102(a) of this code. The 29 Legislature hereby expressly creates the cause of action described in subsection (b) of this section
30 for any person harmed by a violation of the requirements of §49A-1-102(d) of this code. The 31 statute of limitation for the filing of any civil action under this section shall be within five years after 32 the discovery of the violation, or in the exercise of reasonable diligence should have known of the 33 violation of this section. No award of damages pursuant to this section may be imposed for 34 violations occurring more than five years before the action is brought and no award of damages 35 may be imposed for any violation that occurred prior to the enactment of this section during the 36 2026 Regular Session of the West Virginia Legislature.

§49A-1-105. Injunction by action of Attorney General; civil penalties; basis of civil penalties; and statute of limitations.

1           (a) If the Attorney General believes that a commercial entity is knowingly and intentionally
2 violating or has knowingly violated this article, and the action is in the public interest, the Attorney
3 General may bring an action in the circuit court located where a minor child, or individual, has 4 accessed the obscene material, or sexual material harmful to minors, or in the circuit court located
5 where an individual resides who has had any identifiable information improperly retained, used,
6 shared, or sold, against a commercial entity or other person to enjoin the violation and recover a
7 civil penalty for violating this article. If a court of competent jurisdiction finds that the commercial
8 entity has engaged in a violation of this article, it may assess a civil penalty for each violation of this
9 article in addition to any other damages that may have been incurred, as follows:

10           (1) $10,000 per day that the entity operates an Internet website in violation of the age

verification requirements of this article;

(2) $10,000 per instance when the entity retains identifying information in violation of §49A-1-102(b) of this code; and

(3) If, because of the entity's violation of the age verification requirements of this article, one or more minors accesses sexual material harmful to minors, an additional amount of not more than $250,000.

(b) The amount of a civil penalty under this section shall be based on:

(1) The seriousness of the violation, including the nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of the violation;

(2) The history of previous violations;

(3) The amount necessary to deter a future violation;

(4) The economic effect of a penalty on the entity on whom the penalty will be imposed;

(5) The entity's knowledge that the act constituted a violation of this article; and

(6) Any other matter that justice may require.

(c) The Legislature hereby creates a statute of limitation for the filing of any civil action under this section and an action shall be filed within five years after the discovery of the violation of the provisions of this section, or in the exercise of reasonable diligence should have known of the violation of the provisions of this section. No civil penalty pursuant to this section may be imposed for violations occurring more than five years before the action is brought and no civil penalty may be imposed for any violation that occurred prior to the enactment of this section during the 2026 Regular Session of the West Virginia Legislature. The Attorney General may recover reasonable and necessary attorney's fees and costs incurred in a civil action under this article.

§49A-1-106. Rule-making authority.

(a) The Office of Technology, under the Department of Administration, is authorized to propose rules for legislative approval necessary to implement this article in accordance with §29A-3-1 et seq. of this code.

4           (b) The rules:

5           (1) Shall establish processes or means by which a commercial entity may meet the age
6 verification requirements of this article;

7           (2) Shall establish requirements for providing confirmation of the receipt of any information
8 provided by a person seeking to verify age under this article;

9           (3) Shall establish requirements for retaining, protecting, and securely disposing of any 10 information obtained by a commercial entity or its agent as a result of compliance with the 11 requirements of this article;

12           (4) Shall require that information obtained by a commercial entity or its agent in order to 13 comply with the requirements of this article are only retained for the purpose of compliance and 14 may not be used for any other purpose;

15           (5) Shall require if the Office of Technology permits an agent to process verification
16 requirements required by this article, that the agent have its principal place of business in the 17 United States of America.

§49A-1-107. Severability.

1           If any provision or clause of this article or its application to any person or circumstance is
2 held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this article which can
3 be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this
4 article are severable.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to create liability for publishers and distributors of sexual material harmful to minors, to provide definitions, to create a cause of action, and to provide for the administration, applicability, exceptions, and penalties for violation of the article.
