3 code shall be in the circuit court exercising jurisdiction of the underlying juvenile abuse and neglect

9 petition for appointment of guardianship pursuant to §49-4-607a of this code shall be in the circuit 10 court exercising jurisdiction of the underlying juvenile abuse and neglect proceeding.

11 (c) All proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the Rules of Practice and 12 Procedure for Minor Guardianship Proceedings.

13 (d) Any responsible person with knowledge of the facts regarding the welfare and best 14 interests of a minor may petition for an appointment of a guardian except a parent or other person 15 whose rights to the minor have been terminated. No guardianship petition may be considered if the 16 child who is the subject of the petition is involved in another court proceeding relating to custody or 17 guardianship or if the petitioner is a parent seeking custodial rights adverse to the other parent; 18 Provided, That a guardianship petition made pursuant §49-4-607a of this code shall be considered

19 by the circuit judge presiding over the underlying juvenile abuse and neglect proceeding which 20 gave rise to this action.

21 (e) Within two days of the filing of a petition for the appointment of a guardian, the circuit
22 clerk shall notify the court. The court shall hold a hearing upon the petition for the appointment of a 23 guardian within ten days after the petition is filed. If all persons entitled to service in accordance 24 with the Rules of Practice and Procedure for Minor Guardianship Proceedings have not been 25 served at least five days prior to the hearing or have not waived service the court shall continue the 27 (f) When a petition for the appointment of a guardian is filed pursuant to §49-4-607a of this 28 code, the petition shall have attached thereto a certified copy of the underlying juvenile abuse and

30 of the filing of a petition for the appointment of a guardian, the circuit clerk shall notify the circuit 31 court of the filing of the petition. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (e) of this section, 32 upon receipt of the notice of the filing of the petition from the circuit clerk, the circuit judge presiding 33 over the underlying juvenile abuse and neglect proceeding which gave rise to this action shall 34 promptly schedule a hearing with the parties and their counsel and enter an order designating the 35 time and location of the hearing and shall also direct the guardian ad litem in the underlying 36 juvenile child abuse and neglect proceeding to provide a written report to the court that 37 demonstrates whether the appointment of a guardian pursuant to §49-4-607a of this code is in the 38 child's best interests. This hearing shall address the petition for the appointment of a guardian and 39 shall be held within 30 days after the petition is filed.

40 (f) (g) The court may appoint a guardian for a minor if the court finds by clear and 41 convincing evidence that the appointment is in the minor's best interest and:

42 (1) The parents consent;

43 (2) The parents' rights have been previously terminated;

44 (3) The parents are unwilling or unable to exercise their parental rights;

45 (4) The parents have abandoned their rights by a material failure to exercise them for a 46 period of more than six months; or

48 serious detriment to the child if the petition is denied.

49 ~~(g)~~ (h) Whether or not one or more of the conditions of subsection (f) have been 50 established, the court may appoint a temporary guardian for a minor upon a showing that an 51 immediate need exists or that a period of transition into the custody of a parent is needed so long 52 as the appointment is in the best interest of the minor. The temporary guardian has the authority of 53 a guardian appointed pursuant to subsection (f) but the duration of the temporary guardianship 54 may not exceed six months. A temporary guardianship may be extended beyond six months upon 55 further order of the court finding continued need in the best interest of the minor.

56 ~~(h)~~ (i) Any suitable person may be appointed as the minor's guardian. A parent shall 57 receive priority subject only to the provisions of subsections (d) and (f) above. However, in every 58 case the competency and fitness of the proposed guardian must be established and a 59 determination made that the appointment is in the best interest of the child.

60 ~~(i)~~ (j) When a petition for the appointment of a guardian is filed pursuant to §49-4-607a of 61 this code, the court may appoint a guardian for a minor if the court finds by clear and convincing 62 evidence that the appointment is in the minor's best interest and:

63 (1) All parents having or asserting parental rights to the minor consent to the appointment 64 of a guardian or the parents' rights have been previously terminated;

65 (2) The Department of Human Services consents to the appointment of a guardian; and

66 (3) The guardian ad litem in the underlying juvenile child abuse and neglect proceeding 67 has provided a written report to the court that demonstrates that the appointment of a guardian 68 pursuant to §49-4-607a of this code is in the minor's best interests;

69 (k) The Department of Human Services, in cases seeking to appoint a guardian pursuant to 70 §49-4-607a of this code, shall file any order entered by a circuit court appointing a guardian 71 pursuant to this article in the underlying juvenile abuse and neglect proceeding.

72 (l) The court, the guardian or the minor may revoke or terminate the guardianship 73 appointment when:

74 (1) The minor reaches the age of eighteen and executes a release stating that the 75 guardian's estate was properly administered and that the minor has received the assets of the 76 estate from the guardian;

77 (2) The guardian or the minor dies;

78 (3) The guardian petitions the court to resign and the court enters an order approving the 79 resignation; or

80 (4) A petition is filed by the guardian, the minor, a parent or an interested person or upon 81 the motion of the court stating that the minor is no longer in need of the assistance or protection of 82 a guardian due to changed circumstances and the termination of the guardianship would be in the 83 minor's best interest.

84 (j) (m) For a petition to revoke or terminate a guardianship filed by a parent, the burden of 85 proof is on the moving party to show by a preponderance of the evidence that there has been a 86 material change of circumstances and that a revocation or termination is in the child's best 87 interest: Provided, That a guardianship that was granted in a case filed pursuant to the provisions 88 of §49-4-607a may be revoked, modified, or terminated by a parent pursuant to a filed petition with 89 the circuit judge presiding over the underlying juvenile abuse and neglect, the burden of proof is on 90 the moving party to show by clear and convincing evidence that there has been a material change 91 of circumstances and that a revocation, modification, or termination is in the child's best interest:
92 Provided, That if the circuit judge presiding over the underlying juvenile abuse and neglect 93 proceeding is not available to preside over a petition to revoke, modify, or terminate a guardianship 94 filed by a parent, then the circuit court having jurisdiction over the original child abuse and neglect

95 proceeding shall preside over the proceeding, all costs and legal fees of a proceeding 96 contemplated in this subsection shall be borne by the moving party.

97 ~~(k)~~ (n) A guardianship may not be terminated by the court if there are any assets in the 98 estate due and payable to the minor. Another guardian may be appointed upon the resignation of a 99 guardian whenever there are assets in the estate due and payable to the minor.

100 ~~(j)~~ (o) Other than court orders and case indexes, all other records of a guardian proceeding 101 involving a minor are confidential and shall not be disclosed to anyone who is not a party to the 102 proceeding, counsel of record for the proceeding, the court presiding over the proceeding or other 103 family or circuit court presiding over another proceeding involving the minor absent a court order 104 permitting examination of such records.

105 (p) At any point after two years has elapsed from the entry of an order appointing a 106 guardian pursuant to the provisions of §49-4-607a, the guardian may file a petition for adoption, 107 pursuant to the provisions of §48-22-101 et seq. of this code, in the circuit court having jurisdiction 108 over the underlying original child abuse and neglect proceeding that gave rise to the guardianship 109 proceeding.

110 (A) All parents having or asserting parental rights to the minor consent to the adoption or 111 the parents' parental rights have been previously terminated;

112 (B) The Department of Human Services consents to the adoption;

113 (C) The guardian ad litem in the underlying juvenile child abuse and neglect proceeding 114 has provided a written report to the court that demonstrates that adoption is in the minor's best 115 interests.

116 (2) For purposes of this subsection, the circuit court having jurisdiction over the original 117 child abuse and neglect proceeding shall retain jurisdiction of an adoption proceeding filed 118 pursuant to §48-22-101 et seq. of this code.

§44-10-5. Bond of guardian.

1 (a) Every guardian, except in cases filed pursuant to 49-4-607a and in the case of a 2 testamentary guardian where the will otherwise directs and the court in which the will is recorded

3 deems it unnecessary for the safety of the ward, shall give bond with security to be approved by 4 the court by whom he or she is appointed, or before whom he or she accepts the trust, in such 5 penalty as shall be prescribed by the court.

6 (b) The bond shall be given before the clerk of the court in which the petition is filed.

CHAPTER 49. CHILD WELFARE.

§49-4-601b. Substantiation by the department of abuse and neglect; file purging; expungement; exceptions.

1 (a) Notwithstanding any provision of this code to the contrary, when the department 2 substantiates an allegation of abuse and/or neglect against a person, but there is no judicial 3 finding of abuse and/or neglect as a result of the allegation, the department shall provide written 4 notice of the substantiation to the person by certified mail, return receipt requested.

5 (b) The person against whom an abuse and/or neglect allegation has been substantiated, 6 as described in subsection (a) of this section, has the right to contest the substantiation by filing a 9 regarding administrative appeals.

10 (c) The secretary of the department shall propose legislative rules for promulgation in 11 accordance with §29A-3-1 et seq. of this code, within the applicable time limit to be considered by 12 the Legislature during its regular session in the year 2021, which rules shall include, at a minimum:

13 (1) Provisions for ensuring that an individual against whom the department has 14 substantiated an allegation of abuse and/or neglect, but against whom there is no judicial finding of 15 abuse and/or neglect, receives written notice of the substantiation in a timely manner. The written 16 notice shall at a minimum, state the following:

17 (A) The name of the child the person is alleged to have abused and/or neglected, the place 18 or places where the abuse and/or neglect allegedly occurred, and the date or dates on which the 19 abuse and/or neglect is alleged to have occurred;

20 (B) That the person has a right to file a grievance protesting the substantiation of abuse 21 and/or neglect with the board of review of the department and clear instructions regarding how to 22 file a grievance with the board of review, including a description of any applicable time limits;

23 (C) That the person has a right to appeal an adverse decision of the board of review of the 24 department to the courts and notice of any applicable time limits; and 25 (D) A description of any public or nonpublic registry on which the person's name will be 26 included as a result of a substantiated allegation of abuse and/or neglect and a statement that the 27 inclusion of the person's name on the registry may prevent the person from holding jobs from 28 which child abusers are disqualified, or from providing foster or kinship care to a child in the future;

29 (2) Provisions for ensuring that a person against whom an allegation of abuse and/or 30 neglect has been substantiated, but against whom there is no judicial finding of abuse and/or 31 neglect, may file a grievance with the department and provisions guaranteeing that he or she will 32 have a full and fair opportunity to be heard; and

33 (3) Provisions requiring the department to remove a person's name from an abuse and/or 34 neglect registry maintained by the department if a substantiated allegation is successfully 35 challenged in the board of review or in a court.

36 (d) Notwithstanding any provision of this code to the contrary:

37 (1) Where any allegation of abuse and/or neglect is substantiated and a petition for abuse 38 and/or neglect could be filed and the department does not file a petition, all department records 39 related to the allegation shall be sealed one year after the substantiation determination, unless 40 during the one-year period another allegation of child abuse and/or neglect against the person is 41 substantiated: Provided, That the provisions of this subdivision do not apply to a person against

42 whom an allegation is substantiated but the circumstances do not allow for the filing of a petition 43 for abuse and/or neglect;

44 (2) Where an allegation of child abuse and/or neglect is substantiated and a petition is filed 45 with the circuit court which does not end in an adjudication that abuse and/or neglect occurred, the 46 allegation shall be considered to have been unsubstantiate.

47 (3)(A) Where an allegation of child abuse and/or neglect is substantiated and a judicial 48 determination of child abuse and/or neglect is found, a person may petition the circuit court which 49 found the person to be an abusing parent to have his or her department record sealed after no less 50 than five years have elapsed since the finding of abuse and/or neglect is rendered: Provided, That 51 a petition may not be filed if the person had been the subject of a substantiated allegation of abuse 52 and/or neglect during the period of time after the finding and prior to the filing of the petition; and

53 (B) In its consideration of a petition filed under this subdivision, the court, in its discretion, 54 may look at all relevant factors related to the petition, including, but not limited to, efforts at 55 rehabilitation and family reunification.

56 (4) (A) Where an allegation of child abuse and/or neglect is substantiated by the 57 department and a petition alleging child abuse and neglect was filed with the circuit court which 58 does not end in an adjudication that abuse and/or neglect occurred due to a pre-adjudicatory 59 alternative diversion, as provided in §49-4-607a of this code, the allegation shall be considered 60 substantiated and a person may petition the circuit court, that had jurisdiction over the underlying 61 juvenile abuse and neglect proceeding who ratified the pre-adjudicatory alternative diversion to 62 have his or her department record sealed after the child subject to the guardianship attains the age 63 of 18, but no petition shall be made less than five years having elapsed since the order dismissing 64 the underlying abuse and neglect proceeding is entered: Provided, That if the circuit judge of the 65 circuit presiding over the underlying juvenile abuse and neglect proceeding is not available to 66 preside over a petition to have his or her department record sealed, then the circuit court having 67 jurisdiction over the original child abuse and neglect proceeding shall generally preside: Provided,

68 however, That a petition to have his or her department record sealed may not be filed if the person 69 has been the subject of a subsequent substantiated allegation of abuse and/or neglect during the 70 period of time after the removal of the child that necessitated the filing of the underlying juvenile 71 abuse and neglect proceeding and prior to the filing of the petition to have his or her department 72 record sealed; and

73 (B) In its consideration of a petition filed under this subdivision, the court, in its discretion, 74 may look at all relevant factors related to the petition, including, but not limited to the history of the 75 petitioner, the facts and circumstances that caused the pre-adjudicatory alternative diversion to be 76 entered into and the efforts to address these circumstances, efforts at rehabilitation and family 77 reunification

78 (e) The sealing of a record pursuant to subsection (d) of this section means that any inquiry 79 of the department about a person having a record of child abuse and/or neglect for purposes of 80 possible employment shall be answered in the negative.

81 (f) The secretary is directed to propose legislative rules pursuant to §29A-1-1 et seq. of this 82 code to effectuate the amendments to this section enacted during the regular session of the 83 Legislature, 2023.

§49-4-607a. Pre-Adjudicatory Alternative Diversion.

1 (a) Subsequent to the department or other reputable person's filing of a petition to a circuit
2 court alleging that a child is neglected or abused pursuant to the provisions of this article, a parent 3 whose child has been removed from his or her home, pursuant to §49-4-601a of this code, and 4 whose placement has been ratified by the circuit court, may file a written motion seeking a pre-5 adjudicatory alternative diversion which would allow for the entry of an order of guardianship, 6 pursuant to §44-10-1 et seq. of this code, with the placement in lieu of a finding of child abuse and 7 neglect in the underlying case. A parent's written motion seeking a pre-adjudicatory alternative 8 diversion must contain stipulations to the factual basis that gave rise to the petition alleging child 9 abuse or neglect that necessitated the initial removal of the child. All adults having or asserting

10 parental rights to the child for which there is a motion for a pre-adjudicatory alternative diversion 11 must consent to the pre-adjudicatory alternative diversion and the proposed guardianship.

12 (b) A written motion for a pre-adjudicatory alternative diversion shall be made at least five 13 days prior to the scheduled adjudicatory hearing and served upon all parties, the guardian ad 14 litem, and the court.

15 (c) Upon receipt of the written motion seeking a pre-adjudicatory alternative diversion, the 16 court shall enter an order directing the department and the guardian ad litem to each review and 17 evaluate the contents of the motion and provide to the court a written report containing 18 recommendations as to whether a pre-adjudicatory alternative diversion is in the best interests of 19 the child. The department shall also provide in its written report to the circuit court whether it 20 consents to the proposed guardianship request contained within the parent's written motion for a 21 pre-adjudicatory alternative diversion and such consent by the department shall not be 22 unreasonably withheld. The required written reports contemplated in this subsection shall be filed 23 with the court within 30 days of the entry of said order.

24 (d) At the hearing on the parent's request for the pre-adjudicatory alternative diversion, the 25 parents shall be present and shall provide to the court stipulations to the factual basis that gave 26 rise to the petition alleging child abuse or neglect that necessitated the initial removal of the child.
27 A court shall enter an order granting the written request for a pre-adjudicatory alternative diversion 28 and authorizing the filing of a petition for the appointment of a guardian, pursuant to §44-10-1 et 29 seq. of this code, if the circuit court, after reviewing the parent's motion for a pre-adjudicatory 30 alternative diversion and the written reports of the guardian ad litem and the department, 31 determine the following:

32 (1) The guardian ad litem's written report recommends that the guardianship is in the best 33 interests of the child;

34 (2) The department's written report recommends that the guardianship is in the best 35 interests of the child;

36 (3) The department consents to the guardianship; and 37 (4) All adults having or asserting parental rights to the child consent to a pre-adjudicatory 38 alternative diversion and the pre-adjudicatory alternative diversion is in the best interest of the 39 child or the parents' rights have been previously terminated.

40 (e) When a motion for a pre-adjudicatory alternative diversion has been granted by the 41 circuit court the legal proceedings in the underlying juvenile abuse and neglect matter relating to 42 the minor children that are the subject of the pre-adjudicatory alternative diversion shall be 43 continued generally until the court receives an order indicating that a guardian has been appointed 44 pursuant to §44-10-1 et seq. of this code.

45 (f) All parties to the underlying child abuse and neglect proceeding shall be afforded the 46 right to legal counsel in the legal proceedings appointing a guardian contemplated in this section 47 and the court shall appoint the same legal counsel to represent the parties.

48 (g) The circuit court shall dismiss the underlying child abuse and neglect case once the 49 order appointing a guardian has been entered and provided to the circuit court having jurisdiction 50 over the underlying juvenile child abuse and neglect proceeding: Provided, That the circuit court 51 may order the department to continue to provide any services that are for the benefit of the child 52 that is subject to the guardianship if the court finds that continuation of these services are in the 53 best interest of the child.

54 (g) A pre-adjudicatory alternative diversion is not available to parents if a court determines:

55 (1) The parent has subjected the child, another child of the parent or any other child 56 residing in the same household or under the temporary or permanent custody of the parent to 57 aggravated circumstances which include, but are not limited to, abandonment, torture, chronic 58 abuse and sexual abuse;

59 (2) The parent has:

60 (A) Committed murder of the child's other parent, guardian or custodian, another child of 61 the parent or any other child residing in the same household or under the temporary or permanent 62 custody of the parent;

64 another child of the parent or any other child residing in the same household or under the 65 temporary or permanent custody of the parent;

66 (C) Attempted or conspired to commit murder or voluntary manslaughter or been an 67 accessory before or after the fact to either crime;

68 (D) Committed unlawful or malicious wounding that results in serious bodily injury to the 69 child, the child's other parent, guardian or custodian, to another child of the parent or any other 70 child residing in the same household or under the temporary or permanent custody of the parent;

71 or

72 (E) Committed sexual assault or sexual abuse of the child, the child's other parent, 73 guardian or custodian, another child of the parent or any other child residing in the same 74 household or under the temporary or permanent custody of the parent.
