2026 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

House Bill 5056

FISCAL NOTE

By Delegate Toney

[Introduced February 02, 2026; referred to the Committee on Finance]

1 A BILL to amend and reenact §18-7A-28 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating 2 to the State Teachers Retirement System; options to beneficiaries; and authorizing a 3 change of options because of death of beneficiary with a joint life annuity, within the first 4 five years of retirement.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 7A. STATE TEACHERS RETIREMENT SYSTEM.

§18-7A-28. Options to beneficiaries; change of certain options because of divorce or annulment; limitation on recalculated monthly benefits.

1 The retirement board is hereby authorized to offer plans, optional with the beneficiary, for 2 the payment of allowances due such the beneficiary for retirement, withdrawal, or prior service
3 pensions under the retirement system. No plans shall may be offered, however, which are not 4 approved by competent actuaries.

5 When a beneficiary and his or her spouse have been approved for a retirement plan which 6 provides for them a joint life annuity, and (1) their marriage is subsequently dissolved; or (2) the 7 spouse dies during the first five years of the beneficiary's retirement, the board shall permit such 8 the beneficiary to convert to the maximum life annuity plan approved by the board: Provided, That 9 the beneficiary shall furnish to the board: (1) proof of entry of a final decree of divorce or 10 annulment; or (2) proof of the spouse's death: Provided, however, That a beneficiary who qualifies 11 for the change of retirement plans afforded by this section shall be permitted only one such 12 change: Provided further, That the recalculated monthly benefits, independently of increases 13 granted by law after the beneficiary's retirement, shall may not exceed the monthly benefits which 14 would have been applicable under the maximum life annuity plan at the time the beneficiary 15 retired; and with such the recalculation to be effective on the first day of the month following 16 submission to the board by the beneficiary of proof of entry of a final decree of divorce or 17 annulment.

18 Upon remarriage, a retitant may name the new spouse as an annuitant for any of the

19 survivorship retirement benefit options offered by the provisions of this section: Provided, That the 20 beneficiary shall furnish to the retirement board satisfactory proof of the marriage: Provided,
21 however, That the retirant certifies under penalty of perjury that no qualified domestic relations
22 order that would restrict such a designation is in effect: Provided further, That no cause or action 23 against the board may then arise or be maintained on the basis of having permitted the retirant to 24 name a new spouse as annuitant for any of the survivorship retirement benefit options. The value
25 of the new survivorship annuity shall be the actuarial equivalent of the retirant's benefit 26 prospectively in effect at the time the new annuity is elected.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to permit a beneficiary under the State Teachers Retirement System who has been approved for a retirement with a joint life annuity to convert to the maximum life annuity if the spouse dies within the first five years of the beneficiary's retirement.
