

WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE

2026 REGULAR SESSION

Committee Substitute

for

House Bill 5214

By Delegate Heckert

[Originating in the Committee on the Judiciary;

Reported on February 17, 2026]

1 A BILL to amend and reenact §49-4-604 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating 2 to requiring a parent, who has been adjudicated to have abused and/or neglected their 3 child, to undergo lab confirmed drug testing prior to reunification pursuant to an order 4 entered after a dispositional child abuse or neglect hearing returning a child to his or her 5 own home under supervision of the department; also relating to not permitting a child to 6 return to the home for reunification if either parent residing in that home initially tests 7 positive for alcohol or controlled substance for which they do not possess a valid and 8 current prescription, or medical marijuana card; and requiring a hearing within 10 days of 9 the failure of the initial drug test by the parents.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 4. COURT ACTIONS.

§49-4-604. Disposition of neglected or abused children; case plans; dispositions; factors to be considered; reunification; orders; alternative dispositions.

1 (a) Child and family case plans. — Following a determination pursuant to §49-4-602 of this 2 code wherein the court finds a child to be abused or neglected, the department shall file with the 3 court a copy of the child's case plan, including the permanency plan for the child. The term "case 4 plan" means a written document that includes, where applicable, the requirements of the family 5 case plan as provided in §49-4-408 of this code and that also includes, at a minimum, the 6 following:

7 (1) A description of the type of home or institution in which the child is to be placed, 8 including a discussion of the appropriateness of the placement and how the agency which is 9 responsible for the child plans to assure that the child receives proper care and that services are 10 provided to the parents, child, and foster or kinship parents in order to improve the conditions that 11 made the child unsafe in the care of his or her parent(s), including any reasonable 12 accommodations in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U. S. C.
13 §12101 et seq., to parents with disabilities in order to allow them meaningful access to 14 reunification and family preservation services;

15 (2) A plan to facilitate the return of the child to his or her own home or the concurrent 16 permanent placement of the child; and address the needs of the child while in kinship or foster 17 care, including a discussion of the appropriateness of the services that have been provided to the 18 child.

19 The term "permanency plan" refers to that part of the case plan which is designed to 20 achieve a permanent home for the child in the least restrictive setting available. The plan must 21 document efforts to ensure that the child is returned home within approximate time lines for 22 reunification as set out in the plan. Reasonable efforts to place a child for adoption or with a legal 23 guardian should be made at the same time, or concurrent with, reasonable efforts to prevent 24 removal or to make it possible for a child to return to the care of his or her parent(s) safely. If 25 reunification is not the permanency plan for the child, the plan must state why reunification is not 26 appropriate and detail the alternative, concurrent permanent placement plans for the child to 27 include approximate time lines for when the placement is expected to become a permanent 28 placement. This case plan shall serve as the family case plan for parents of abused or neglected 29 children. Copies of the child's case plan shall be sent to the child's attorney and parent, guardian 30 or custodian or their counsel at least five days prior to the dispositional hearing. The court shall 31 forthwith proceed to disposition giving both the petitioner and respondents an opportunity to be 32 heard.

33 (b) Requirements for a Guardian ad litem. —

34 A guardian ad litem appointed pursuant to §49-4-601(f)(1) of this code, shall, in the 35 performance of his or her duties, adhere to the requirements of the Rules of Procedure for Child 36 Abuse and Neglect Proceedings and the Rules of Professional Conduct and such other rules as 37 the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals may promulgate, and any appendices thereto, and 38 must meet all educational requirements for the guardian ad litem. A guardian ad litem may not be 39 paid for his or her services without meeting the certification and educational requirements of the 40 court. The West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals is requested to provide guidance to the judges 41 of the circuit courts regarding supervision of said guardians ad litem. The West Virginia Supreme 42 Court of Appeals is requested to review the Rules of Procedure for Child Abuse and Neglect 43 Proceedings and the Rules of Professional Conduct specific to guardians ad litem.

44 (c) Disposition decisions. — The court shall give precedence to dispositions in the 45 following sequence:

46 (1) Dismiss the petition;

47 (2) Refer the child, the abusing parent, the battered parent or other family members to a 48 community agency for needed assistance and dismiss the petition;

49 (3) (A) Return the child to his or her own home under supervision of the department;

50 Provided, That in cases where parents have been adjudicated, pursuant to this chapter, as having 51 abused or neglected their child, and the order adjudicating these parents contains findings of fact 52 and conclusions of law that the parents abused, or improperly used, controlled substances which 53 contributed to a situation that resulted in the initial removal of the child, or there is credible 54 evidence to believe that the parents may currently be abusing, or improperly using, controlled 55 substances, prior to returning the child to his or her own home pursuant to this subdivision, the 56 court may require that the parents undergo and successfully pass a drug test which tests for 57 alcohol, amphetamines (amphetamine and methamphetamine) cocaine, marijuana, opiates 58 (codeine and morphine), phencyclidine, barbiturates, benzodiazepines, methadone, 59 propoxyphene, kratom, and expanded opiates (oxycodone, hydromorphone, hydrocodone, 60 oxymorphone): Provided, however, That the drug and alcohol testing required by this subdivision 61 shall include laboratory confirmation of any positive test result which shall be immediately 62 provided to the court, the guardian ad litem, and all parties upon receipt by the department.

63 (B) If either parent living in the same home as the child initially tests positive for one or 64 more of the substances listed in this subdivision, and who does not possess a valid and current

65 prescription relating to the substance for which the parent tested positive, or a valid and current 66 medical marijuana card issued pursuant to the provisions of §16A-1-1 et seq., the department 67 shall not permit the child to return to his or her own home and must immediately notify the court, 68 the guardian ad litem, and all parties of the results of the initial drug testing, pending laboratory
69 confirmation. Upon receiving notice that a parent has tested positive in the initial drug and alcohol 70 test, the court shall schedule a hearing within ten (10) calendar days to address any evidence of a 71 laboratory confirmed positive drug or alcohol test result and the potential impact on any findings of 72 fact and conclusions of law contained within the court's dispositional order.

73 (4) Order terms of supervision calculated to assist the child and any abusing parent or 74 battered parent or parents or custodian which prescribe the manner of supervision and care of the 75 child and which are within the ability of any parent or parents or custodian to perform;

76 (5) Upon a finding that the abusing parent or battered parent or parents are presently 77 unwilling or unable to provide adequately for the child's needs, commit the child temporarily to the 78 care, custody, and control of the department, a licensed private child welfare agency, or a suitable 79 person who may be appointed guardian by the court. The court order shall state:

80 (A) That continuation in the home is contrary to the best interests of the child and why;

81 (B) Whether or not the department has made reasonable efforts, with the child's health and 82 safety being the paramount concern, to preserve the family, or some portion thereof, and to 83 prevent or eliminate the need for removing the child from the child's home and to make it possible 84 for the child to safely return home;

85 (C) Whether the department has made reasonable accommodations in accordance with 86 the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U. S. C. § 12101 et seq., to parents with disabilities 87 in order to allow them meaningful access to reunification and family preservation services;

88 (D) What efforts were made or that the emergency situation made those efforts 89 unreasonable or impossible; and 90 (E) The specific circumstances of the situation which made those efforts unreasonable if 91 services were not offered by the department. The court order shall also determine under what 92 circumstances the child's commitment to the department are to continue. Considerations pertinent 93 to the determination include whether the child should:

94 (i) Be considered for legal guardianship;

95 (ii) Be considered for permanent placement with a fit and willing relative; or 96 (iii) Be placed in another planned permanent living arrangement, but only in cases where 97 the child has attained 16 years of age and the department has documented to the circuit court a 98 compelling reason for determining that it would not be in the best interests of the child to follow one

99 of the options set forth in subparagraphs (i) or (ii) of this paragraph. The court may order services 100 to meet the special needs of the child. Whenever the court transfers custody of a youth to the 101 department, an appropriate order of financial support by the parents or guardians shall be entered 102 in accordance with §49-4-801 through §49-4-803 of this code;

103 (6) Upon a finding that there is no reasonable likelihood that the conditions of neglect or 104 abuse can be substantially corrected in the near future and, when necessary for the welfare of the 105 child, terminate the parental, custodial and guardianship rights and responsibilities of the abusing 106 parent and commit the child to the permanent sole custody of the nonabusing parent, if there be 107 one, or, if not, to either the permanent guardianship of the department or a licensed child welfare 108 agency. The court may award sole custody of the child to a nonabusing battered parent. If the court 109 shall so find, then in fixing its dispositional order the court shall consider the following factors:

110 (A) The child's need for continuity of care and caretakers;

111 (B) The amount of time required for the child to be integrated into a stable and permanent 112 home environment; and

113 (C) Other factors as the court considers necessary and proper. Notwithstanding any other 114 provision of this article, the court shall give consideration to the wishes of a child 14 years of age or 115 older or otherwise of an age of discretion as determined by the court regarding the permanent 116 termination of parental rights. No adoption of a child shall take place until all proceedings for

117 termination of parental rights under this article and appeals thereof are final. In determining 118 whether or not parental rights should be terminated, the court shall consider the efforts made by 119 the department to provide remedial and reunification services to the parent. The court order shall 120 state:

121 (i) That continuation in the home is not in the best interest of the child and why;

122 (ii) Why reunification is not in the best interests of the child;

123 (iii) Whether or not the department made reasonable efforts, with the child's health and 124 safety being the paramount concern, to preserve the family, or some portion thereof, and to 125 prevent the placement or to eliminate the need for removing the child from the child's home and to 126 make it possible for the child to safely return home, or that the emergency situation made those 127 efforts unreasonable or impossible; and 128 (iv) Whether or not the department made reasonable efforts to preserve and reunify the 129 family, or some portion thereof, including a description of what efforts were made or that those 130 efforts were unreasonable due to specific circumstances.

131 (7) For purposes of the court's consideration of the disposition custody of a child pursuant 132 to this subsection, the department is not required to make reasonable efforts to preserve the family 133 if the court determines:

134 (A) The parent has subjected the child, another child of the parent or any other child 135 residing in the same household or under the temporary or permanent custody of the parent to 136 aggravated circumstances which include, but are not limited to, abandonment, torture, chronic 137 abuse, and sexual abuse;

138 (B) The parent has:

139 (i) Committed murder of the child's other parent, guardian or custodian, another child of the 140 parent, or any other child residing in the same household or under the temporary or permanent 141 custody of the parent;

142 (ii) Committed voluntary manslaughter of the child's other parent, guardian, or custodian,

143 another child of the parent, or any other child residing in the same household or under the 144 temporary or permanent custody of the parent;

145 (iii) Attempted or conspired to commit murder or voluntary manslaughter, or been an 146 accessory before or after the fact to either crime;

147 (iv) Committed a malicious assault that results in serious bodily injury to the child, the 148 child's other parent, guardian, or custodian, to another child of the parent, or any other child 149 residing in the same household or under the temporary or permanent custody of the parent;

150 (v) Attempted or conspired to commit malicious assault, as outlined in subparagraph (iv), 151 or been an accessory before or after the fact to the same;

152 (vi) Committed sexual assault or sexual abuse of the child, the child's other parent, 153 guardian, or custodian, another child of the parent, or any other child residing in the same 154 household or under the temporary or permanent custody of the parent; or 155 (vii) Attempted or conspired to commit sexual assault or sexual abuse, as outlined in 156 subparagraph (vi), or been an accessory before or after the fact to the same.

157 (C) The parental rights of the parent to another child have been terminated involuntarily;

158 (D) A parent has been required by state or federal law to register with a sex offender 159 registry, and the court has determined in consideration of the nature and circumstances 160 surrounding the prior charges against that parent, that the child's interests would not be promoted 161 by a preservation of the family.

162 (d) As used in this section, "No reasonable likelihood that conditions of neglect or abuse 163 can be substantially corrected" means that, based upon the evidence before the court, the abusing 164 adult or adults have demonstrated an inadequate capacity to solve the problems of abuse or 165 neglect on their own or with help. Those conditions exist in the following circumstances, which are 166 not exclusive:

167 (1) The abusing parent or parents have habitually abused or are addicted to alcohol, 168 controlled substances or drugs, to the extent that proper parenting skills have been seriously

169 impaired and the person or persons have not responded to or followed through the recommended 170 and appropriate treatment which could have improved the capacity for adequate parental 171 functioning;

172 (2) The abusing parent or parents have willfully refused or are presently unwilling to 173 cooperate in the development of a reasonable family case plan designed to lead to the child's 174 return to their care, custody and control;

175 (3) The abusing parent or parents have not responded to or followed through with a 176 reasonable family case plan or other rehabilitative efforts of social, medical, mental health, or other 177 rehabilitative agencies designed to reduce or prevent the abuse or neglect of the child, as 178 evidenced by the continuation or insubstantial diminution of conditions which threatened the 179 health, welfare, or life of the child;

180 (4) The abusing parent or parents have abandoned the child;

181 (5) The abusing parent or parents have repeatedly or seriously injured the child physically 182 or emotionally, or have sexually abused or sexually exploited the child, and the degree of family 183 stress and the potential for further abuse and neglect are so great as to preclude the use of 184 resources to mitigate or resolve family problems, or assist the abusing parent or parents in fulfilling 185 their responsibilities to the child; and 186 (6) The battered parent's parenting skills have been seriously impaired and the person has 187 willfully refused or is presently unwilling or unable to cooperate in the development of a reasonable 188 treatment plan, or has not adequately responded to or followed through with the recommended 189 and appropriate treatment plan.

190 (e) The court may, as an alternative disposition, allow the parents or custodians an 191 improvement period not to exceed six months. During this period the court shall require the parent 192 to rectify the conditions upon which the determination was based. The court may order the child to 193 be placed with the parents, or any person found to be a fit and proper person, for the temporary 194 care of the child during the period. At the end of the period, the court shall hold a hearing to 195 determine whether the conditions have been adequately improved and at the conclusion of the 196 hearing shall make a further dispositional order in accordance with this section.

197 (f) The court may not terminate the parental rights of a parent on the sole basis that the 198 parent is participating in a medication-assisted treatment program, as regulated in §16-5Y-1 et 199 seq., for substance use disorder, as long as the parent is successfully fulfilling his or her treatment 200 obligations in the medication-assisted treatment program.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to require parents with abuse and/or neglect claims substantiated against them to be drug tested prior to reunification.
