

WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE

2026 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

House Bill 5334

By Delegate Young

[Introduced February 09, 2026; referred to the Committee on the Judiciary]

20 damage to property, disorderly conduct, or unlawful conduct.

21 (f) A residential tenant may bring a civil action for a violation of this section and recover
22 from the landlord $1,000 or actual damages, whichever is greater, and reasonable attorney's fees.

§37-6B-2. Right of victims of violence to terminate lease.

1 (a) A tenant to a residential lease may terminate a lease agreement in the manner provided
2 in this section without penalty or liability, if the tenant or another authorized occupant fears
3 imminent violence after being subjected to:

4 (1) Domestic violence, as that term is defined under §48-27-202 of this code; or

5 (2) Criminal sexual conduct under §61-8B-1 et seq. of this code, even if there is no
6 conviction of a person accused of these actions;

7 (3) Sexual extortion, which is defined as "demanding, requesting, requiring, or accepting
8 sexual favors in place of payment for rent, utilities, repairs, or any other financial interaction
9 between landlord and tenant; or

10 (4) Stalking, harassment, or both under §61-2-9a of this code.

11 (b) The tenant shall provide signed and dated written notice to the landlord:

12 (1) Stating the tenant fears imminent violence from a person as indicated in a qualifying
13 document against the tenant or an authorized occupant if the tenant or authorized occupant
14 remains in the leased premises;

15 (2) Stating that the tenant needs to terminate the tenancy;

16 (3) Providing the date by which the tenant will vacate; and

17 (4) Providing written instructions for the disposition of any remaining personal property in 18 accordance with section §37-6-6 of this code.

19 (c) The written notice shall be delivered before the termination of the tenancy and be 20 accompanied by a qualifying document.

21 (d) The landlord may request that the tenant disclose the name of the perpetrator and if a
22 request is made, inform the tenant that the landlord seeks disclosure to protect other tenants in the 23 building. The tenant may decline to provide the name of the perpetrator for safety reasons.

24 Disclosure shall not be a precondition of terminating the lease.

25 (e) The tenancy terminates, including the right of possession of the premises, as provided
26 in subsection (c) of this section.

27 (e) A landlord may not disclose:

28 (1) Any information provided to the landlord by a tenant in the written notice required under 29 subsection (b) of this section;

30 (2) Any information contained in the qualifying document;

31 (3) The address or location to which the tenant has relocated; or

32 (4) The status of the tenant as a victim of violence.

33 (f) The information referenced in subsection (b) of this section may not be entered into any
34 shared database or provided to any person or entity but may be used when required as evidence 35 in an eviction proceeding, action for unpaid rent or damages arising out of the tenancy, with the 36 consent of the tenant, or as otherwise required by law.

37 (g) A tenant who is a sole tenant and is terminating a lease for reasons described in this
38 section is responsible for the rent payment for the full month in which the tenancy terminates and is
39 relieved of any other contractual obligation for payment of rent or any other charges for the 40 remaining term of the lease, except as provided in this section. In a sole tenancy, the tenancy
41 terminates on the date specified in the notice provided to the landlord as required by this section.

42 (h) In a tenancy with multiple tenants, one of whom is terminating the lease under this
43 section, any lease governing all tenants is terminated at the later of the end of the month or the end
44 of the rent interval in which one tenant terminates the lease under this section. All tenants are 45 responsible for the rent payment for the full month in which the tenancy terminates, and are
46 relieved of any other contractual obligation for payment of rent or any other charges for the 47 remaining term of the lease, except as provided in this section. Any tenant whose tenancy was 48 terminated under this paragraph may reapply to enter into a new lease with the landlord.

49 (i) This section does not affect a tenant's liability for delinquent, unpaid rent or other
50 amounts owed to the landlord before the lease was terminated by the tenant under this section.

51 (j) A residential tenant may not waive, and a landlord may not require the residential tenant
52 to waive, the tenant's rights under this section.

53 (k) For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given:

54 (1) "Court official" means a judge, court administrator, prosecutor, probation officer, or
55 victim's advocate, whether employed by or under contract with the court, who is authorized to act
56 on behalf of the court;

57 (2) "Qualified third party" means a person, acting in an official capacity, who has had in-
58 person contact with the tenant and is:

59 (A) A licensed health care professional operating within the scope of the license;

60 (B) A domestic abuse advocate; or

61 (C) A sexual assault counselor;

62 (3) "Qualifying document" means:

63 (A) A valid order for protection under §48-27-501 et seq. of this code.;

64 (B) Any document from a court mandating that no contact be had between the victim and
65 the person who is the subject of the lease termination;

66 (C) A writing produced and signed by a court official, acting in an official capacity,
67 documenting that the tenant or authorized occupant is a victim of domestic violence, as that term
68 criminal sexual conduct, sexual extortion, or harassment, as those terms are used in this section,
69 and naming the perpetrator, if known;

70 (D) A writing produced and signed by a city, county, state, or tribal law enforcement official,
71 acting in an official capacity, documenting that the tenant or authorized occupant is a victim of 72 domestic violence, as that term criminal sexual conduct, sexual extortion, or harassment, as those 73 terms are used in this section, and naming the perpetrator, if known; or

74 (E) a statement by a qualified third party, in the following form:

75 STATEMENT BY QUALIFIED THIRD PARTY

76 I, (name of qualified third party), do hereby verify as follows:

77 1. I am a licensed health care professional, domestic abuse advocate, or sexual assault
78 counselor, who has had in-person contact with (name of victim(s)).

79 2. I have a reasonable basis to believe (name of victim(s)) is a victim/are 80 victims of domestic abuse, criminal sexual conduct, sexual extortion, or harassment and fear(s) 81 imminent violence against the individual or authorized occupant if the individual remains (the 82 individuals remain) in the leased premises.

83 3. I understand that the person(s) listed above may use this document as a basis for 84 gaining a release from the lease.

85 I attest that the foregoing is true and correct.

86 (Printed name of qualified third party)

87 (Signature of qualified third party)

88 (Business address and business telephone)

89 (Date)

90 (l) If a federal statute, regulation, or handbook permitting termination of a residential 91 tenancy subsidized under a federal program conflicts with any provision of this section, then the 92 landlord shall comply with the federal statute, regulation, or handbook.

§37-6B-3. Residential Tenant's Right to Privacy.

1 (a) For purposes of this section, "landlord" has the meaning defined in §37-6-1 et seq. of
2 this code, and also includes the landlord's agent or other person acting under the landlord's
3 direction and control.

4 (b) Except as provided in subsection (d) of this section, a landlord may enter the premises
5 rented by a residential tenant only for a reasonable business purpose and after making a good
6 faith effort to give the residential tenant reasonable notice under the circumstances of not less than 7 24 hours in advance of the intent to enter. A residential tenant may permit a landlord to enter the

8 rented premises with less than 24 hours' notice if desired. The notice shall specify a time or 9 anticipated window of time of entry and the landlord may only enter between the hours of 8:00 a.m.
10 and 8:00 p.m. unless the landlord and tenant agree to an earlier or later time. A residential tenant
11 may not waive and the landlord may not require the residential tenant to waive the residential 12 tenant's right to prior notice of entry under this section as a condition of entering into or maintaining 13 the lease.

14 (c) For purposes of this section, a reasonable business purpose includes, but is not limited 15 to:

16 (1) Showing the unit to prospective residential tenants during the notice period before the 17 lease terminates or after the current residential tenant has given notice to move to the landlord or 18 the landlord's agent;

19 (2) Showing the unit to a prospective buyer or to an insurance representative;

20 (3) Performing maintenance work;

21 (4) Allowing inspections by state, county, or city officials charged in the enforcement of 22 health, housing, building, fire prevention, or housing maintenance codes;

23 (5) The residential tenant is causing a disturbance within the unit;

24 (6) The landlord has a reasonable belief that the residential tenant is violating the lease
25 within the residential tenant's unit;

26 (7) Prearranged housekeeping work in senior housing where 80% or more of the 27 residential tenants are age 55 or older;

28 (8) The landlord has a reasonable belief that the unit is being occupied by an individual
29 without a legal right to occupy it; or

30 (9) The residential tenant has vacated the unit.

31 (d) Notwithstanding subsection (b), a landlord may enter the premises rented by a
32 residential tenant to inspect or take appropriate action without prior notice to the residential tenant
33 if the landlord reasonably suspects that:

34 (1) Immediate entry is necessary to prevent injury to persons or property because of 35 conditions relating to maintenance, building security, or law enforcement;

36 (2) Immediate entry is necessary to determine a residential tenant's safety; or

37 (3) Immediate entry is necessary in order to comply with local ordinances regarding 38 unlawful activity occurring within the residential tenant's premises.

39 (d) If the landlord enters when the residential tenant is not present and prior notice has not
40 been given, the landlord shall disclose the entry by placing a written disclosure of the entry in a
41 conspicuous place in the premises.

42 (e) If a landlord violates this section, the residential tenant is entitled to a penalty which 43 may include a rent reduction up to full rescission of the lease, recovery of any damage deposit less
44 any amount retained under section §37-6A-1 et seq. of this code, and up to a $1,000 civil penalty
45 for each violation and reasonable attorney fees.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to provide for a tenant's right to contact emergency services, leave a lease due to violence or threats of violence, and to ensure tenant privacy from landlords.
