FISCAL
NOTE

By Delegates Pritt, Brooks, Jordan, and Roop

[Introduced February 09, 2026; referred to the Committee on the Judiciary]

1 A BILL to amend and reenact §17C-4-1 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating
2 to requiring toxicology tests to be performed after a fatal vehicle crash.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE

ACCIDENTS.

§17C-4-1. Crashes involving death or personal injuries; Erin's Law.

1 (a) The driver of any vehicle involved in a crash resulting in the injury to or death of any
2 person shall immediately stop the vehicle at the scene of the crash or as close to the scene as
3 possible and return to and remain at the scene of the crash until he or she has complied with the 4 requirements of §17C-4-3 of this code: Provided, That the driver may leave the scene of the crash
5 as may reasonably be necessary for the purpose of rendering assistance to any person injured in 6 the crash, as required by §17C-4-3 of this code.

7 (b) Any driver who is involved in a crash in which another person suffers bodily injury and
8 who intentionally violates §17C-4-1(a) of this code when he or she knows or has reason to believe
9 that another person has suffered physical injury in said crash is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon
10 conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than $1,000, confined in jail for not more than one year,
11 or both fined and confined.

12 (c) Notwithstanding the provisions of §17C-4-1(b) of this code, any driver who is involved in 13 a crash in which another person suffers serious bodily injury and who intentionally violates §17C-
14 4-1(a) of this code when he or she knows or has reason to believe that another person has 15 suffered physical injury in said crash is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be
16 fined not more than $2,500, or imprisoned in a state correctional facility for not less than one year
17 nor more than three years, or both fined and imprisoned.

18 (d) Notwithstanding the provisions of §17C-4-1(b) or §17C-4-1(c) of this code, any driver
19 who is involved in a crash that proximately causes the death of another person who intentionally
20 violates §17C-4-1(a) of this code when he or she knows or has reason to believe that another
21 person has suffered physical injury in said crash is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof,

22 shall be fined not more than $5,000, or imprisoned in a state correctional facility for not less than
23 one year nor more than five years, or both fined and imprisoned: Provided, That any death
24 underlying a prosecution under this subsection must occur within one year of the crash.

25 (e) As used in this section:

26 (1) "Bodily injury" means injury that causes substantial physical pain, illness, or any 27 impairment of physical condition;

28 (2) "Physical injury" means bodily injury, serious bodily injury or death; and

29 (3) "Serious bodily injury" means bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death, that 30 causes serious or prolonged disfigurement, prolonged impairment of health, prolonged loss or 31 impairment of the function of any bodily organ, loss of pregnancy, or the morbidity or mortality
32 occurring because of a preterm delivery.

33 (f) The commissioner shall revoke the license or permit or operating privilege to drive of 34 any resident or nonresident person convicted pursuant to the provisions of this section for a period
35 of one year from the date of conviction or the date of release from incarceration, whichever is later.

36 (g) This section may be known and cited as Erin's Law.

37 (h) In any vehicle crash involving a death, toxicology test of the drivers involved shall be 38 performed as soon as possible.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to require toxicology tests after a fatal vehicle crash.
