[Introduced January 23, 2026; referred to the Committee on Government Organization]

1 A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding a new section,
2 designated §5-1-31, relating to requiring the Governor to establish crisis preparedness
3 plans.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 1. THE GOVERNOR.

§5-1-31. Crisis preparedness plans.

1 (a) The Legislature finds that the government of West Virginia must be prepared for major
2 crises that pose existential or major threats to the people of West Virginia.

3 (b) The Legislature finds that the global and national situations have become the most
4 critical in decades.

5 (c) To protect West Virginia, the Governor will develop comprehensive whole-of-
6 government plans to deal with crises that can pose existential or major threats to the people and
7 governance of West Virginia. The following types of crises will be priorities:

8 (1) Nuclear war, including nuclear strikes inside West Virginia;

9 (2) Major disruptions of the energy grid in West Virginia, including disruptions resulting
10 from high altitude electromagnetic pulse (HEMP) attacks, solar coronal mass ejections, cyber-
11 attacks, or physical attacks on key grid systems;

12 (3) Major cyber-attacks creating long term disruptions to West Virginia's communications
13 systems;

14 (4) Invasion; and

15 (5) Insurrection.

16 (d) Plans created under subsection (c) of this section must include:

17 (1) Preventative measures the state government can take to pre-empt the impact of the 18 crises;

19 (2) Mitigation measures;

20 (3) Immediate response;

21        (4) Remediation; and
22        (5) Recovery.
23        (e) The Department of Homeland Security will brief the Interim Joint Standing Committee
24 on Government Organization no later than August 31, 2026, on tentative plans, and measures the
25 state government is taking to facilitate the plans and additional mitigation measures the state
26 government can take. Final plans should be completed by November 30, 2026. Periodic updates
27 should be completed annually and be briefed to the Interim Joint Standing Committee on 28 Government Organization no later than each June.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to require the Governor to establish crisis preparedness plans.
