21 or the safety and maintenance of evidence. Further conditions may include that the person 22 charged shall:

23 (A) Not violate any criminal law of this state, another state, or the United States;
24 (B) Remain in the custody of a person designated by the judicial officer, who agrees to

46 regarding the value of its assets and liabilities and the nature and extent of encumbrances against

65 (I) Whether the arrested person is already on bail or subject to other release conditions in 66 other pending cases;

67 (J) Whether the arrested person has been bound over for trial after a preliminary 68 examination;

69 (K) Whether the arrested person has in the past forfeited bail or violated a condition of 70 release or was ever a fugitive from justice; and

71 (L) The policy against unnecessary incarceration of arrested persons pending trial set forth
72 in this section.

73 (b) In all misdemeanors, cash bail may not exceed three times the maximum fine provided
74 for the offense. If the person is charged with more than one misdemeanor, cash bail may not 75 exceed three times the highest maximum fine of the charged offenses.

86 proceeding at which the conditions of release are initially set.

87 (f) No judicial officer may recommend the services of a surety who is his or her relative as 88 that term is defined in §6B-1-3 of this code.

92 subsequent offense) or §61-6-24 (threats of terroristic acts) to undergo a mental health evaluation
93 performed by a mental health provider licensed by the state. The purpose of this evaluation is to 94 determine if the defendant needs mental health treatment or counseling as a condition of bond.
95 The evaluation must be scheduled within 10 days of the order's issuance. Once the evaluation is 96 completed, the examiner must, within 48 hours, issue a report to the magistrate
