and Masters

[Introduced January 19, 2026; referred to the Committee on the Judiciary]

1 A BILL to amend and reenact §3-5-6e of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating to
2 changing the date for election of judges of the Intermediate Court of Appeals to the same
3 date as the general election.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 5. PRIMARY ELECTIONS AND NOMINATING PROCEDURES.

§3-5-6e. Election of judges of the Intermediate Court of Appeals.

1 (a) The Legislature finds that representative democracy works best when the largest
2 number of eligible voters participate in an election. The Legislature also finds that far more eligible
3 voters participate in general elections than primary elections.

4 (b) An election for the purpose of electing a Judge or Judges of the Intermediate Court of
5 Appeals shall be held on the same date as the ~~primary~~ general election, as provided by law, upon a
6 nonpartisan ballot by division printed for this purpose.

7 ~~(b)~~ (c) In case of a tie vote under this section, §3-6-12 of this code controls in breaking the 8 tie vote.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to change the date for election of judges of the Intermediate Court of Appeals to the same date as the general election.

Strike-throughs indicate language that would be stricken from a heading or the present law and underscoring indicates new language that would be added.
