Resolutions Introduced

Delegate A. Evans offered the following resolution, which was read by its title and referred to the Committee on Rules:

H. C. R. 116 — “Requesting the Joint Committee on Government and Finance to study the need to amend section four, article seven, chapter eight of the Code of West Virginia to provide a mechanism for decreasing corporate municipality limits by making a minor boundary adjustment when the municipality has declined to apply for a decrease.”

Whereas, Section four, article seven, chapter eight of the Code of West Virginia provides that in the event a municipality desires to decrease its corporate limits by making a minor boundary adjustment, the governing body of such municipality may apply to the county court of the county wherein the municipality or the major portion of the territory thereof is located for permission to effect such decrease in the corporate limits by minor boundary adjustment; and

Whereas, Section four, article seven, chapter eight of the Code of West Virginia does not provide a process whereby a county court can require a municipality to effectuate a minor boundary decrease in the municipality’s corporation limit line of demarcation to facilitate clarification, correction, and reconciliation to improve the county’s real property land tax records and tax maps when the municipality has declined to apply for a decrease; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That the Legislature hereby requests the Joint Committee on Government and Finance to study the need to amend section four, article seven, chapter eight of the Code of West Virginia to provide a mechanism for decreasing corporate municipality limits by making a minor boundary adjustment when such an adjustment is necessary or desired and the municipality has declined to apply for a decrease; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the Joint Committee on Government and Finance report to the regular session of the Legislature, 2017, on its findings, conclusions and recommendations, together with drafts of any legislation necessary to effectuate its recommendations; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the expenses necessary to conduct these studies, to prepare reports and to draft necessary legislation be paid from legislative appropriations to the Joint Committee on Government and Finance.

Delegates Cooper, Ambler, Atkinson, Campbell, Espinosa, D. Evans, Kelly, Moye, Perdue, Rohrbach, Romine, Rowan, R. Smith and Wagner offered the following resolution, which was read by its title and referred to the Committee on Rules:

H. C. R. 117 — “Requesting the Joint Committee on Government and Finance conduct a study of the Mountaineer Challenge Academy to develop recommendations to enhance programs for at-risk youth in the State of West Virginia.”

Whereas, In 1991 the Joint Armed Services Committee directed the National Guard to develop a plan to “add value to America” by providing values, skills, education and self-discipline to young people incorporating the structure and esprit de corps found in the military model and the National Youth Challenge program began operating in 1993 under Public Law 102-484, with West Virginia as one of the original programs; and

Whereas, The Mountaineer Challenge Academy is intended to train and mentor selected at-risk youth to become contributing members of society using the Eight Core Components in a quasi-military environment during a twenty-two-week residential and one year post-residential follow-up program; and

Whereas, The Mountaineer Challenge Academy gives at-risk youths a second chance at obtaining their basic education and potentially gaining their high school diploma; and

Whereas, The State of West Virginia and its youth may benefit by expanding the Challenge Academy or instituting other programs to help them become successful; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That the Joint Committee on Government and Finance is hereby requested to study other ways to provide additional support to develop and grow programs for at-risk youth, such as the Challenge Academy, to explore the possibility of investing in a second Challenge Academy program in West Virginia, and to assess the ability of establishing a National Defense Cadet Corps at West Virginia high schools that do not have Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps programs; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the Joint Committee on Government and Finance report to the regular session of the Legislature 2017 on its findings, conclusions and recommendations, together with drafts of any legislation necessary to effectuate its recommendations; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the expenses necessary to conduct this study, to prepare a report and to draft necessary legislation be paid from legislative appropriations to the Joint Committee on Government and Finance.

Delegates Morgan, Boggs, Canterbury, Caputo, Eldridge, A. Evans, Fleischauer, Fluharty, Guthrie, Hamilton, Hartman, Hornbuckle, Miley, Moore, Moye, Perdue, Pushkin, Reynolds, Romine, Rowe, Skinner, Stansbury, Storch, Trecost, Walters and P. White offered the following resolution, which was read by its title and referred to the Committee on Rules:

H. C. R. 118 — “Requesting the Joint Committee on Government and Finance study how best to implement work and job-training requirements for recipients of Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits in the category of Able-Bodied Adults without Dependents (ABAWD).”

Whereas, The State Legislature is committed to helping SNAP recipients in the ABAWD category with individual screening and plans, access to paid and unpaid employment – including workfare and volunteer service, job training, and entering educational and training programs that qualify them for employment; and

Whereas, SNAP provides food support for approximately 90,000 recipients in the ABAWD category; and

Whereas, The SNAP benefits for this category bring in tens of millions in federal dollars into the state’s economy, thereby supporting numerous retail establishments and service jobs; and

Whereas, The state is currently conducting a pilot program for the nine counties to move nonexempt recipients in the ABAWD category into work and training, and this pilot may be expanded to other counties in the future; and

Whereas, The state does not currently provide a breakdown of characteristics of SNAP recipients in the ABAWD category as a basis for planning and targeting state and community resources; and

Whereas, Resources are required to give each recipient in the pilot program individual screenings and feasible plans within SNAP policies, and to develop the necessary infrastructure for assessing and developing options, including workfare, volunteer service, and education and training; and

Whereas, Organizations exist in the state and its communities to help provide these resources; and

Whereas, Deliberate and diligent study and coordination with state and local agencies and other interested parties will maximize public and private resources and help to reach their common goal of assisting recipients who are not otherwise exempt from the requirements in contributing to their local communities and achieving self-sufficiency; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That the Joint Committee on Government and Finance is requested to study the means and methods of implementing work and training requirements for SNAP recipients in the ABAWD group, and to consider the resources required to expand the pilot and the optimal time frames for any potential expansion; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the Joint Committee on Government and Finance report to the Legislature before the 2017 regular session its findings, conclusions and recommendations to fully implement the USDA requirements for the ABAWD population and the optimal time frames for expansion beyond the pilot counties, together with drafts of any legislation necessary to effectuate its recommendations; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the Department of Health and Human Resources and its partners shall cooperate with the Legislature to provide access to information, access to personnel, and access to all records necessary to effectuate the provisions of this study; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the expenses necessary to conduct this study and to prepare and draft necessary legislation be paid from legislative appropriations to the Joint Committee on Government and Finance.

Special Calendar

Unfinished Business

H. C. R. 36, Applying for an Article V Amendments Convention to Propose a Constitutional Amendment; coming up in regular order, as unfinished business, was reported by the Clerk.

Delegate Sponaugle moved to amend the resolution on page three, line eleven, following the period, by inserting the following:

“Further Resolved, That this resolution is null and void and of no effect if the West Virginia Legislature fails to enact a fully funded budget for fiscal year 2017, signed by action of the Governor or otherwise lawfully enacted, by April 1, 2016.”

On the adoption of the amendment, Delegate Sponaugle demanded the yeas and nays, which demand was sustained.

The yeas and nays having been ordered, they were taken (Roll No. 492), and there were—yeas 33, nays 63, absent and not voting 4, with the yeas and absent and not voting being as follows:

Yeas: Azinger, Bates, Blackwell, Boggs, Byrd, Campbell, Caputo, Eldridge, Ferro, Fleischauer, Fluharty, Guthrie, Hartman, Hornbuckle, Longstreth, Lynch, Manchin, Marcum, Miley, Moore, Morgan, Moye, J. Nelson, Perdue, Perry, Phillips, Pushkin, Reynolds, Rodighiero, Shaffer, P. Smith, Sponaugle and P. White.

Absent and Not Voting: Arvon, Hicks, Lane and Skinner.

So, a majority of the members present and voting not having voted in the affirmative, the amendment was rejected.

An amendment recommended by Delegate J. Nelson was reported by the Clerk.

Whereupon,

Delegate J. Nelson then asked and obtained unanimous consent to withdraw the amendment and offer a reformed amendment in its stead, as follows:

Delegate J. Nelson moved to amend the resolution on page one, line one, by striking out everything beginning with the word “Applying” and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“Requesting the Joint Committee on the Judiciary to study the proposal of urging Congress call a convention of the states, under the authority reserved to the states in Article V of the United States Constitution, limited to proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States that impose fiscal restraints on the federal government, limit the power and jurisdiction of the federal government and limit the terms of office for its officials and for members of Congress.

Whereas, The elected West Virginia State Senators and Delegates have a need for a study to research and determine the viability and limits of such a convention process, as well as provide answers to the many outstanding questions of the members and the public at large.

Whereas, Article IV, Section 4 of the Constitution of the United States guarantees to every state a republican form of government which gives each state equal standing when calling for an amendments convention. Article V of the Constitution of the United States reserves to the several states the right to call for a convention for the purpose of amending the United States Constitution when Congress or the courts or both Congress and the courts refuse to address an egregious wrong suffered by the people; and

Whereas, The states alone have the authority to “limit” the agenda and authority of a convention. The states alone can call for a “Single Issue” convention by agreeing among themselves the purpose, terms, conditions, duration and agenda for the convention. Congress does not have the authority to define a “Single Issue” convention. The authority of Congress, under Article V of the United States Constitution, empowers it to convene a convention as called for and defined by the several states; and

Whereas, The founders of our Constitution empowered state legislators to be guardians of liberty against future abuses of power by the federal government which has created a crushing national debt through improper and imprudent spending; and

Whereas, The federal government has invaded the legitimate roles of the states through the manipulative process of federal mandates, most of which are unfunded to a great extent, and the federal government has ceased to live under a proper interpretation of the Constitution of the United States; and

Whereas, It is the solemn duty of the states to protect the liberty of the people—particularly for the generations to come—by proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States through a Convention of the States under Article V for the purpose of restraining these and related abuses of power; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That the State of West Virginia strongly condemns the prolonged and unlawful expansion of Federal authority upon the rights and self-governance of the people of West Virginia and is contemplating this action as a method of self-preservation against such abuses; and be it;

Further Resolved, For the purposes of determining whether the Legislature should ~~That the Legislature hereby~~ urges Congress call a convention of the states, under the authority reserved to the states in Article V of the United States Constitution, limited to proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States that impose fiscal restraints on the federal government, limit the power and jurisdiction of the federal government and limit the terms of office for its officials and for members of Congress, the Legislature hereby requests that the Joint Committee on the Judiciary to determine the viability, limits, and answer other questions about the process should the State of West Virginia proceed with the application; and, be it

~~Further Resolved, That the State of West Virginia hereby applies to Congress, under the provisions of Article V of the Constitution of the United States, for the calling of a convention of the states limited to proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States that impose fiscal restraints on the federal government, limit the power and jurisdiction of the federal government and limit the terms of office for its officials and for members of Congress and absolutely no other business will be authorized at this convention; and, be it~~

~~Further Resolved, That this application constitutes a continuing application in accordance with Article V of the Constitution of the United States until the legislatures of at least two thirds of the several states have made applications on the same subject; and, be it~~

~~Further Resolved, That the Joint Committee on the Judiciary report to the regular session of the Legislature, 2017, on its findings, conclusions and recommendations together with drafts of any legislation to effectuate its recommendations; and, be it~~

~~Further Resolved, That the expenses necessary to conduct this study, to prepare a report and to draft necessary legislation be paid from legislative appropriations to the Joint Committee on the Judiciary.~~

~~Further Resolved, That the Clerk of the Senate is hereby directed to forward this resolution and application to the President and Secretary of the United States Senate, to the Speaker and Clerk of the United States House of Representatives, to the members of West Virginia's congressional delegation and to the presiding officers of each of the legislative houses in the several states requesting their cooperation.~~

Delegate Cowles, asked and obtained unanimous consent that the bill be placed at the foot of the calendar, with the amendment pending.

Introduction of Resolutions

By Delegate Miley, on behalf of all Members of the House of Delegates, offered the following resolution, which was read by the Clerk as follows:

H. R. 20 — “Honoring and memorializing the life of Frank ‘Chunki’ Angotti who served for four years in the West Virginia Legislature.”

Whereas, Frank “Chunki” Angotti was born on July 20, 1948, to the late Frank and Rose Romano Angotti of Clarksburg, the second of four boys; and

Whereas, in the spirit of the way he lived his life, Frank “Chunki” Angotti was helping a neighbor remove snow on January 23 after a winter storm when the suffered a heart attack, and he passed away on February 4 at Ruby Memorial Hospital in Morgantown; and

Whereas, Frank “Chunki” Angotti also had roots in Hinton, West Virginia and during his early years where his father was a pharmacist and graduated from Notre Dame High School in Clarksburg with the Class of 1966; and

Whereas, Frank “Chunki” Angotti was formerly married to Mary Virginia Maunz Angotti with whom he had two children Dr. Lori Angotti and Dr. Frank T. Angotti III, who reside in West Virginia; and

Whereas, Frank “Chunki” Angotti is also survived by his longtime companion, Gina Jones of Clarksburg along with his brothers, Mark Angotti, Dr. Michael Angotti and Dr. Marshall Angotti; and

Whereas, After graduating high school Frank “Chunki” Angotti attended Fairmont State College and enlisted in the United States Army Reserves serving his country for six years from 1970 until 1976; and

Whereas, Frank “Chunki” Angotti was a born entrepreneur and operating several small businesses, including Chunki’s Restaurant for the past thirty-eight years which was a well-known icon throughout Harrison County. He was especially proud of developing the Hot Italian Sub and his Heart Shaped Pizzas only served on Valentine’s Day. He often claimed to be the “oldest hot delivery” in Clarksburg. Practically every morning he entertained his friends and colleagues with coffee and good conversation at Chunki’s restaurant until it was time for him and longtime friend, Rhonda Talerico, his right hand at Chunki’s, to start preparing for lunch service that day; and

Whereas, serving the public one of Frank “Chunki” Angotti greatest passions. He was first elected to the Clarksburg Water Board in 1993 serving until 1998, and he was twice elected to the West Virginia House of Delegates serving from 1998 to 2002. He was both elected and appointed to the Harrison County Commission for a total of ten years’ service; and

Whereas, Frank “Chunki” Angotti loved his colleagues with whom he served and for many years following his service as a member of the House of Delegates, he would travel to the Capitol in Charleston to serve lunch to all of the Members of the Senate and House. Once, while cooking on the Capitol roof breezeway the wind shifted and filled the Capitol with smoke resulting in its evacuation! He was fondly teased about it for years; and

Whereas, Frank “Chunki” Angotti never refused to help a constituent regardless of whether they had supported his candidacy. No matter what hour of the day or night anyone who would call him and need help with a problem, he would stop what he was doing and spend his time making sure that the person was getting help from the proper government agency. He loved serving the public and did so free of special interest’s influence or thoughts of personal gain; and

Whereas, In addition to serving with great integrity and dedication to duty, Frank “Chunki” Angotti was a Roman Catholic by faith and a member of both Immaculate Conception and Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Churches; and

Whereas, Frank “Chunki” Angotti was a dedicated father, a wonderful companion and family man and an active member of the Harrison County community. He especially loved children and would do anything he could to help them. He was a very hard worker and there was no challenge too large or too small that he could not tackle and successfully complete. He was a true public servant and always put the interests of the people ahead of his own. He was dearly loved by his family and friends and will be greatly missed by all who knew him; therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Delegates:

That the House of Delegates hereby honors one of its own, former Delegate Frank “Chunki” Angotti, who most ably served for four years in the West Virginia Legislature; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the House of Delegates memorializes the life of Frank “Chunki” Angotti, a unique and singular individual who devoted his life to better the lives of the citizens of the city of Clarksburg and Harrison County as well as all West Virginians; and, be it

Angotti III, and his three brothers and their spouses: Mark and Pam Angotti of Cary, North Carolina, Dr. Michael Angotti and partner Debra Shaw, Virginia Beach, Virginia and Drs. Marshall and Grace Angotti of York, Pennsylvania.

Committee Reports

By Delegates Skinner, Folk, Foster, McCuskey, Fleischauer, Manchin, Rowe, and Shott:

H. C. R. 115 — “Requesting the Joint Committee on Government and Finance to study all versions of call for a constitutional convention before the legislature”.

Whereas, a national effort is underway to pass state resolutions and bills calling for a constitutional convention to modify the U.S. Constitution; and

Whereas, the legislature has under consideration several versions the study should consider, including but not be limited to call of Article V convention, Convention of States, Compact of States versions before the legislature, and make any recommendations to ensure that the Constitution and West Virginia’s priorities are protected as this body considers any version of this national call; and

Whereas, some versions include the call to sharply limit what the federal government can do to advance the nation’s priorities, invest in the country’s future, and protect the rights and opportunities of all Americans; and

Whereas, among the many Constitutional amendments that could emerge from this effort include but are in no way limited to the consideration of a balanced budget amendment, impose fiscal restraints on the federal government, limit the power and jurisdiction of the federal government, and limit the terms of office for its officials and for members of Congress, overturn of the Citizens United decision, alter and strike current amendments as well as alter or strike the entire U.S. Constitution; and

Whereas, a Constitutional convention would open up the Constitution to any amendments its delegates should choose to propose. While West Virginia has considered the control of a West Virginia delegate chosen for a convention, the state is trusting that other states are giving the same thoughtful processes to delegate consideration, in turn opening up the constitution with varying state opinions of delegate authority; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That the Joint Committee on Government and Finance is hereby requested to study all versions of call for a constitutional convention before the legislature; and be it

Further Resolved, for the study to include but not be limited to the call of Article V convention, Convention of States, Compact of States versions before the legislature; and, be it

Further Resolved, This study should include but not be limited to questions of if a convention can be limited to certain issues; how the delegates would be selected; and make any recommendations to ensure that the Constitution and West Virginia's priorities are protected by passing any version of this national call; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the Joint Committee on Government and Finance report to the Legislature on the first day of the regular session, 2017, on its findings, conclusions and recommendations together with drafts of any legislation to effectuate its recommendations; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the expenses necessary to conduct this study, to prepare a report and to draft necessary legislation be paid from legislative appropriations to the Joint Committee on Government and Finance.

At the respective requests of Delegate Cowles, and by unanimous consent, reference of the resolution (H. C. R 115) to a committee was dispensed with, and it was taken up for immediate consideration and adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk of the House communicate to the Senate the action of the House of Delegates and request concurrence therein.

Unfinished Business

H. C. R. 36, Applying for an Article V Amendments Convention to Propose a Constitutional Amendment; having been postponed in earlier proceedings, was taken up for further consideration.

Debate resumed on the amendment offered by Delegate J. Nelson, on page one, line one, by striking out everything beginning with the word "Applying" and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Requesting the Joint Committee on the Judiciary to study the proposal of urging Congress call a convention of the states, under the authority reserved to the states in Article V of the United States Constitution, limited to proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States that impose fiscal restraints on the federal government, limit the power and jurisdiction of the federal government and limit the terms of office for its officials and for members of Congress.

Whereas, The elected West Virginia State Senators and Delegates have a need for a study to research and determine the viability and limits of such a convention process, as well as provide answers to the many outstanding questions of the members and the public at large.

Whereas, Article IV, Section 4 of the Constitution of the United States guarantees to every state a republican form of government which gives each state equal standing when calling for an amendments convention. Article V of the Constitution of the United States reserves to the several states the right to call for a convention for the purpose of amending the United States Constitution when Congress or the courts or both Congress and the courts refuse to address an egregious wrong suffered by the people; and

Whereas, The states alone have the authority to “limit” the agenda and authority of a convention. The states alone can call for a “Single Issue” convention by agreeing among themselves the purpose, terms, conditions, duration and agenda for the convention. Congress does not have the authority to define a “Single Issue” convention. The authority of Congress, under Article V of the United States Constitution, empowers it to convene a convention as called for and defined by the several states; and

Whereas, The founders of our Constitution empowered state legislators to be guardians of liberty against future abuses of power by the federal government which has created a crushing national debt through improper and imprudent spending; and

Whereas, The federal government has invaded the legitimate roles of the states through the manipulative process of federal mandates, most of which are unfunded to a great extent, and the federal government has ceased to live under a proper interpretation of the Constitution of the United States; and

Whereas, It is the solemn duty of the states to protect the liberty of the people—particularly for the generations to come—by proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States through a Convention of the States under Article V for the purpose of restraining these and related abuses of power; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That the State of West Virginia strongly condemns the prolonged and unlawful expansion of Federal authority upon the rights and self-governance of the people of West Virginia and is contemplating this action as a method of self-preservation against such abuses; and be it:

Further Resolved, For the purposes of determining whether the Legislature should ~~That the Legislature hereby~~ urges Congress call a convention of the states, under the authority reserved to the states in Article V of the United States Constitution, limited to proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States that impose fiscal restraints on the federal government, limit the power and jurisdiction of the federal government and limit the terms of office for its officials and for members of Congress, the Legislature hereby requests that the Joint Committee on the Judiciary to determine the viability, limits, and answer other questions about the process should the State of West Virginia proceed with the application; and, be it

~~Further Resolved, That the State of West Virginia hereby applies to Congress, under the provisions of Article V of the Constitution of the United States, for the calling of a convention of the states limited to proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States that impose fiscal restraints on the federal government, limit the power and jurisdiction of the federal government and limit the terms of office for its officials and for members of Congress and absolutely no other business will be authorized at this convention; and, be it~~

~~Further Resolved, That this application constitutes a continuing application in accordance with Article V of the Constitution of the United States until the legislatures of at least two thirds of the several states have made applications on the same subject; and, be it~~

~~Further Resolved, That the Joint Committee on the Judiciary report to the regular session of the Legislature, 2017, on its findings, conclusions and recommendations together with drafts of any legislation to effectuate its recommendations; and, be it~~

~~Further Resolved, That the expenses necessary to conduct this study, to prepare a report and to draft necessary legislation be paid from legislative appropriations to the Joint Committee on the Judiciary.~~

~~Further Resolved, That the Clerk of the Senate is hereby directed to forward this resolution and application to the President and Secretary of the United States Senate, to the Speaker and Clerk of the United States House of Representatives, to the members of West Virginia's congressional delegation and to the presiding officers of each of the legislative houses in the several states requesting their cooperation.~~

Delegate Kurcaba was addressing the House when Delegate Overington arose to a point of order, regarding the content of the Gentlemen's remarks, to which point the Speaker asked the Members to confine their remarks to the amendment before the House.
