Judge Rowe,

As you know, West Virginia Code § 51-9-10 states that “per diem and retirement compensation of a senior judge shall not exceed the salary of a sitting judge . . . In the past, when senior status judges have reached their income limit, the Court has paid them under contract.

Tammy Smith, in our Human Resource Department, said that you can work approximately seventy (70) days before reaching your income limitation. Please keep track of your limit to make sure you do not go over that amount. When you are close, please let me or Jennifer Singletary know that you need a contract.
